13 September 2003

Unto the East Kingdom College of Heralds and all others who do receive this letter, greetings from Tanzos Istvan, Eastern Crown Herald!

This ILoI contains the first half of submissions received before the last day of Pennsic XXXII (and one we missed from months ago!) and has 47 numbered items. Commentary, as always, should be sent to the above address and is due on 18 October 2003.

Good luck, and thanks again in advance for all the hard work you do!

In service,

Istvan Eastern Crown

1 Adrian Alonzo de Cadiz - New Device
Herald of Record: Deiniol ap Gwrgurst

Per fess embattled gules and Or, two bulls combatant sable.

This name was registered in Sept. of 1997 via the East.

2 Alethea Eastriding (F) - New Primary Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Klaus the Red

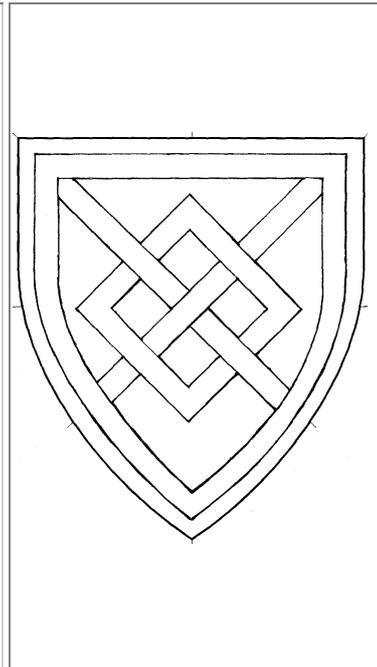

Azure, a fret couped within and conjoined to an orle argent

No major changes. Alethea from Withycombe, p12. s.n. 'Alethea': "... came into fashion as a Christian name in the 17th century. Earliest cited occurrence is 1606."

Eastriding from Mills Dictionary of English Place Names p 287 s.n. 'Riding': "Riding, East, North and West - old tripartite division of Yorkshire."

The form also says "Sufficient evidence exists of locative bynames being used in English without the 'de/of' preposition: Per Reaney & Wilson: Robert Lancashire, 1604 (p 270, s.n. Lancashire) and William Yorkescher 1379 (p 508, s.n. Yorkshire).

[note that the dated Withycombe spelling is in fact 'Alatheia'.]

3 Alise de Montmaidy (F) - New Primary Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Name - Bronwen o Gydweli Device - Cadell Blaidd du

Vert, a phoenix Or rising from flames proper and in chief two fleurs-de-lys Or.

No major changes. If changes must be made, submitter cares about the sound of given name and meaning of byname.

'Alise' found in 'English Surnames', Reaney & Wilson, Pg. 7, s.n. 'Alis', alternate header form dated to 1273 (w).

'de' a French particle meaning 'of'.

'Montmaidy' found in 'Dictionnaire Étymologique des Noms de Lieux de la France', Dauzat, Pg. 466, s.n. Montblainville, dates this spelling to 1239.

The submitter provided a print-out from the region's tourism Web site (<http://www.florenville.org/montmedy.html>) which states (translated), '(Montmedy) is an old capital of the county of Chiny (from 941 to 1364).'

['Alise' is not dated in Reaney & Wilson; however, it is dated in that spelling to 1273 in Withycombe, p. 16 s.n. 'Alice'. The Dauzat cite is correct in essence but s.n. 'Mons'.]

4 Alison Wodehalle (F) - New Primary Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Caitriona inghean Uí Bhraorain

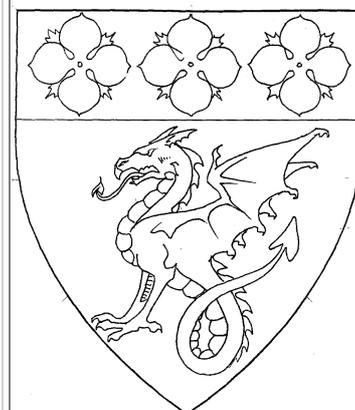

Or, a wyvern azure and on a chief sable three quatrefoils Or barbed vert.

No major changes.

'Alison' is found in 'A Dictionary of English Surnames', Reaney and Wilson, no page given, dated to 1386.

'Wodehalle' is found in 'A Dictionary of English Surnames', Reaney and Wilson, no page given, s.n. woodhall, citation for 'Alice atte Wodehalle' dated to 1332.

['Alison is found in R&W p. 7 s.n. 'Alison'. 'Woodhall' is on p. 500 of the same book.]

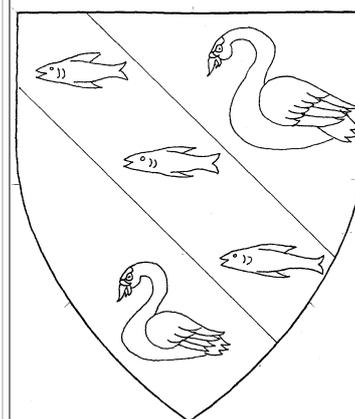

5 Alissende de la Halle - New Device

Herald of Record: Michael Langley of Riversmeet

Azure, on a bend between two swans naiant argent three fish fesswise azure.

Name was accepted on the Aug. 2002 East Kingdom Letter of Report, dated Nov. 11, 2002, and was sent to Laurel in February 2003.

6 Amat al-Shakoor di Riccardo - New Primary Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Name-Mari Pelican Device - Michael Langley of Riversmeet

Purpure, a sword inverted proper on a chief argent two swords inverted in saltire gules.

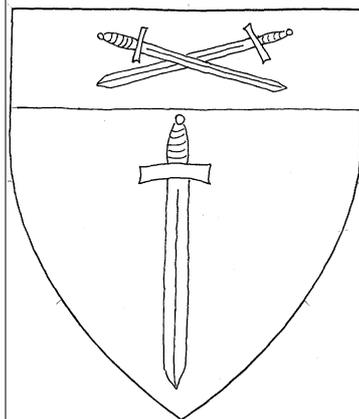

No minor changes. She cares about the sound of the name.

'Amat al-Shakoor' (submitter provides printouts for this element) according to Juliana de Luna in 'Andalusian Names: Arabs in Spain' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/andalusia.html>) under given names, devotional names she states: 'Female devotional forms are made by adding one of the 'Hundred Names of God' to Amat, 'maidservant', to make Amat al-Wahid 'maidservant of the Unique.' (this is an example)

Mustafa al-Muhaddith ibn al-Sqaat, 'The One Hundred Most Beautiful Names of God' lists 'Ya Shakoor', 'O Appreciator' (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mustapha/cnamesofgod.html>, PCA)

'Riccardo' found in the 'Online Tratte of Office Holders' (<http://www.stg.brown.edu/projects/tratte/doc/name1.html>) which lists 'Riccardo' as a masculine given name. 'di Riccardo' is the patronymic form, meaning 'daughter of Riccardo'.

[Please comment on the likelihood that an Arabic given name would be combined with an Italian surname, as accoring to the name weirdness table (http://home.earthlink.net/~mranc/sca/weirdness_table.html) Italian may not be combined with Persian.]

7 Ana Bek (F) - New Primary Name
Herald of Record: Caitriona inghean Ui Bhraorain
Current name: Áine inghean Thaidhg

No major changes. If changes must be made, submitter cares most about the sound.

'Ana' from 'Pre-1600 Latin Evidence from Scotland in Scottish Gaelic Given Names for Women' by Sharon L. Krossa <http://www.Medievalscotland.org/scotnames/gaelicgiven/women/anna.shtml> cites an 'Ana Donaldi domini Insularum' dated October 30, 1397

'Bek' from Black, pg. 65, s.n. Beck cites a 'Thomas de Bek', tenant of the Earl of Douglas in Glenwaldy in the Barony of Prestoune, 1376.

8 Andrew de Londres (M) - New Primary Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Name-Caitriona inghean Ui Bhraonain, Device-Cadell Blaidd du

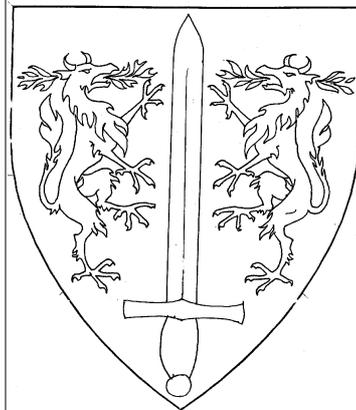

Vert, a sword Or hilted sable between two continental panthers combatant Or incensed gules.

Submitter will accept only minor changes necessary for registration. He cares about the sound.

'Andrew' is in 'Men's Given Names from Early 13th Century England' by Talan Gwynek (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/eng13/eng13m.html>)

'Londres' is given as the French translation of London. 'Andrew de Londres should be as plausible as its translation, Andrew of London.'

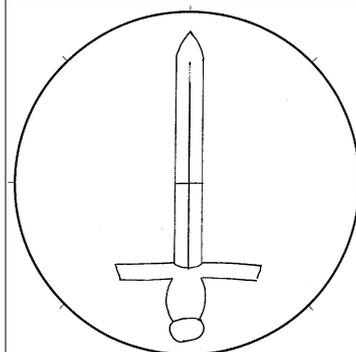

[More on 'Londres' as a translation of 'London' would be nice, if anyone can find anything.]

9 Andrew de Londres - New Badge

Herald of Record: Cadell Blaidd du

(Fieldless) A sword per fess Or and sable.

10 Avelyn of Mayburgh (F) - New Primary Name

Herald of Record: Frederich Holstein der Tollhase

Submitter will accept changes for registerability of her name. She cares most about the sound.

'Avelyn' is found in Withycombe, pg. 113, s.n. Evelina and dated to 1379.

'of Mayburgh' is a constructed English place name. 'May' found in Ekwel, pg. 308, s.n. Mayford dated to 1236 with this spelling. 'Burgh' found on pg. 73 of Ekwel, s.n. Burrow, dated to 1327 in 'Erthburgh'.

11 Barbara Wrona (F) - New Primary Name & New Device

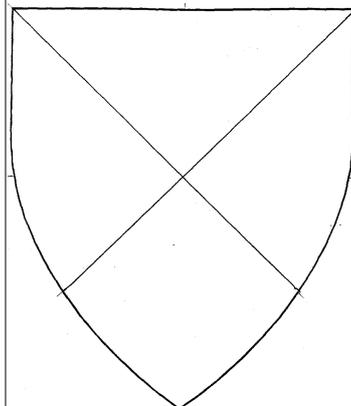

Herald of Record: Giovanna di Milano

Per saltire azure and sable.

Submitter will accept changes for registerability of her name.

'Barbara' found in 'Polish Feminine Given Names, 1600-1650' (<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/polishfem.html>) by Aryanhwy merch Catmael, dates to 1639.

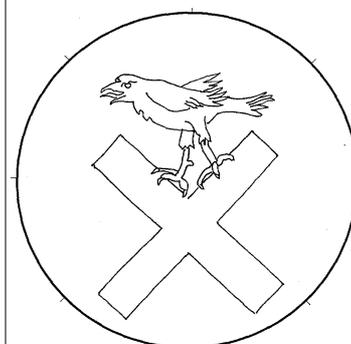

'Wrona' an animal-derived byname. 'Wiedza Powsechna Compact Polish and English Dictionary' (NPC) gives 'wrona' as Polish for 'crow'. 'Origins and Meaning of Ukrainian Surnames' by Gregory Gressa from the Ukrainian Genealogy home page (currently moving and unavailable; NPC) states surnames formed from nicknames were common and gives 'Vorona' (crow) as an example.

12 Barbara Wrona - New Badge

Herald of Record: Giovanna di Milano

(Fieldless) A raven sable perched on a saltire coupé azure

13 Calis die Wilde - New Primary Name

Herald of Record: Pedro de Alcazar

Submitter will accept changes.

'Calis' found in '15th Century Dutch Names' by Aryanhwy merch Catmael, (<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/dutch15.html>, PCA) dated to 1518.

'die Wilde': Ibid, Surnames (<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/dutch15surnames.html>, PCA) dated to 1432-33.

14 Cecilia Brouderer (F) - New Primary Name

Herald of Record: Alan Fairfax

Submitter will not accept major changes but will allow minor changes for registerability. She cares about the meaning, and says, 'Brouderer means Embroiderer.'

'Cecelia' found in 'Women's Given Names from Early 13th C. England' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/eng13/eng13f.html>, PCA) by Talan Gwynek.

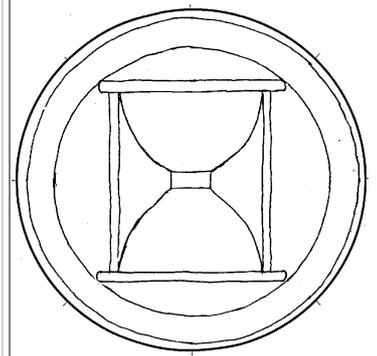

Brouderer found in 'Middle English Occupational Terms', by Thuresson, pg. 214 s.n. 'Embroiderer' (PCA). Form dated to 1369.

15 Cellach MacFaoitigh - New Badge

Herald of Record: Gilbert de Dijon

(Fieldless) An hourglass purpure within and conjoined to an annulet Or.

This name was registered in Aug. 2002 via the East.

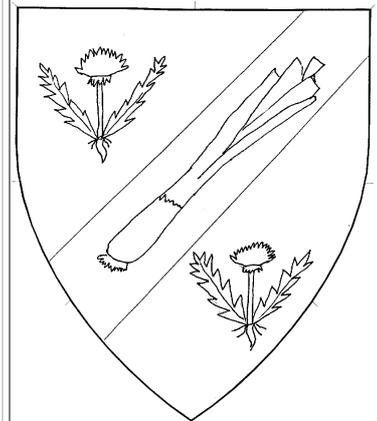

16 Chardonne de Lyon - Resub to Laurel Device

Herald of Record: Self

Argent, on a bend purpure between two dandelions eradicated blossomed Or and leaved proper a leek proper.

Submitter includes possible alternative tinctures: 1) Bend tinctures could be Azure, Gules or Vert 2) Leek tinctures may be Argent or Or.

This name was registered by Laurel via the East Jan. 2003. Her original device, Argent, a dandelion plant vert with three flowers, the centermost in profile, the outer flowers affronty, Or slipped gules all within a bordure vert., was returned at the same time for conflict. As this is a complete redesign, this will clear this conflict.

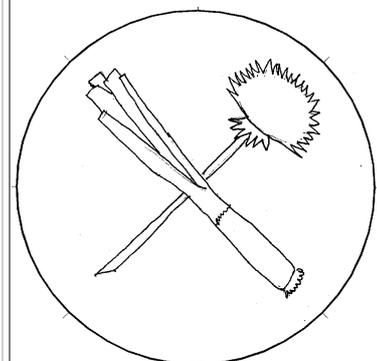

17 Chardonne de Lyon - Resub to Laurel Badge

Herald of Record: Self

(Fieldless) A dandelion slipped and blossomed Or and a leek all proper in saltire.

Submitter includes a letter from Robin Gallowglass, Mural Herald dated May 9, 2003 detailing the reason for her first submission's return. It- (Fieldless) A dandelion Or, slipped gules and leaved with two leaves vert- failed the visual test and conflicted with Annette of Faire Mont's badge, (Fieldless) A flame slipped and leaved with thistle leaves all proper.

This name was registered by Laurel via the East Jan. 2003

18 Constancia Ælfwine - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Alianora Gyllecatan

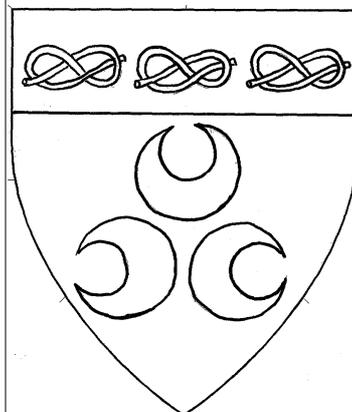

Vert, a crescent an increscent and a descrescent one and two Or and on a chief argent three Cavendish knots azure.

No changes.

'Constancia' dated in that spelling to 1199, 1346 in Withycombe p. 72 s.n. 'Constance'.

'Ælfwine' dated to 731 in Ælfwyn's Anglo-Saxon Names (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/aelfwyn/bede.html>, NPCA) as a man's given name.

[No documentation or indeed reasoning is given as to how a man's name from 731 would make sense as a surname with a woman's name from 1199, but Reaney & Wilson has several examples of surnames which seem to be survivals from given names of the same type as Ælfwine: Thomas Alflod, 1279 (p. 6 s.n. 'Alflat'); Thomas Alfred 1294 (p. 6, s.n. 'Alfred'); and John Alfret 1327 (p. 6, s.n. 'Alfrey').]

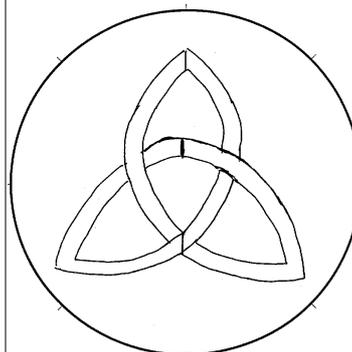

19 Donnan of Whispering Woods - Resub to Laurel Badge

Herald of Record: Cadell Blaidd du

(Fieldless) A triquetra per pale purple and vert.

'Donnan of Whispering Woods' was registered June 1991. Submitter is in process of changing it to 'Donnan o'Whyspering Wude' which was accepted on the June, 2002 East Kingdom Letter of Report dated Aug. 7, 2002.

20 Donovan Shinnock (M) - New Primary Name

Herald of Record: Terandela Manhs (?)

Submitter wants a 16th C. Irish name.

No major changes but will allow minor changes for registerability. He cares most about language and culture.

'Donovan' - Anglicized form of s.n. 'Donndubau' found in O'Corrain and Maguire, pg. 77. "Occurs primarily in Munster where it was borne by several 9th and 10th century princes."

'Shinnock' - Woulfe cites on pg. 455 under s.n. O Catarraig, 'They were also known by the surname of Sionnac (the fox) q.v. from the cognomen (?) of their ancestor, Catarnac Sionnac (the fox) who was slain in the year 1084.' and on pg. 671 under s.n. Sionnac - 'Shinnagh, Shinnock and, by translation, Fox and Foxe, Ir. Sionnac i.e. the fox; an epithet or nickname which supplanted the real surname, especially in the case of the family of O Catarnaig (q.v.) anciently chiefs off Teffia.'

21 Dorathia Mychell (F) - New Primary Name & New Device

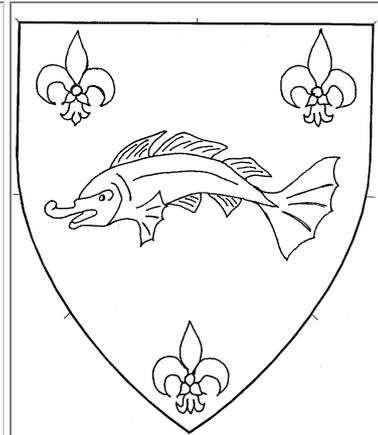

Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

Vert, a dolphin between three fluer-de-lys argent.

No major changes but will accept minor changes for registerability. She cares most about sound.

'Dorathia' found in Black, s.n. Keddie p. 388, 'Dorathia Kadie' in 1616 and in Reaney & Wilson, s.n. Blyman p. 50, 'Doratheia Blithman' in 1505.

'Mychell' found in Black, s.n. Mitchell p. 603, dates 'Mychell' to 1556.

22 Draco LeBlanc (M) - New Primary Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Name-Bronwen o Gydwoli Device-Ulric von der Insel

Per pale vert and Or, two dragons combattant in chief a mullet and a bordure embattled all counterchanged

Will allow changes. Wants name to mean Draco son of Rorich.

'Draco'- Morlet, 'Les Noms de Personne Sur Le Territoire de L'ancienne Gaule du VIe au XIIe Siécle, Vol. I, pg. 74, s.n. 'Drag-' cites 'Draco: Cart. S. Vinc. Mac. (v. 1060), § 14.

'Rorich' found in Bahlow, 'Dictionary of German Names' (translated by Gentry), pg. 421, s.n. Rorich, dated to 1274.

24 Eldrich Gaiman (M) - New Primary Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Evan

Per pale vert and sable, a dragon segreant maintaining a chess-rook a double tressure argent.

Will allow minor changes only for registerability and is most interested in sound.

'Eldrich' found in Reaney & Wilson, s.n. 'Aldrich' p. 6, cites 'William Eldrich' dated 1336 as a patronymic form of Ælfric.

25 Eldrich Gaiman - New Badge

Herald of Record: Edmund de La Haye

(Fieldless) Three Dice one and two conjoined argent spotted sable.
