06 October 2003

Unto the East Kingdom College of Heraldry and all others who do receive this letter, greetings from Tanzos Istvan, Eastern Crown Herald!

This ILoI contains the second half of submissions received before the last day of Pennsic XXXII (and one we missed from months ago!) and has 47 numbered items. Commentary, as always, should be sent to the above address and is due on Saturday, November 15th, 2003.

A reminder that when commenting, please include the number and the name of the submission you are commenting on as the first part of the commentary, as it makes it immensely easier to match things up.

Please note that all sources have been verified unless otherwise noted. If the documentation summary says a spelling is found in Withycombe, we've checked and found the spelling in Withycombe.

Lastly, unless otherwise noted, submitters will accept all changes.

Good luck, and thanks again in advance for all the hard work you do!

In service,

Istvan Eastern Crown

Sable, on a saltire between four roses argent a pen sable.

'Marsaili' speculative Gaelic form of 'Marcella' from 'Scottish Gaelic Given Names for Women', by Sharon Krossa, dated 1401-1500 (<http://www.medievalscotland.org/scotnames/gaelicgiven/women/marsail.shtml>). Citation is from Black, s.n. 'Fuktor' (G. fúcadair, 'fuller') where 'Katherine Fuktor' & 'Marsle hyr dottir' appear in 1527; a clearly Gaelic Anglicized 'Elspet Innyfuktor' appears in the same document.

'Lachtáin' hopefully the genitive of 'Lachtán'. Ó Corrain & Maguire, s.n. Lachtán p. 119, cites this as both early (875) and modern spelling.

[The OCM cite, both header and dated form, is actually 'Lachtnán', not 'Lachtán'.]

18 Mary of High Hill - New Primary Name

'Mary' found in Withycombe, s.s.n. p. 211 dates 'Mary' in this spelling to 1440. Reaney & Wilson, s.n. 'Maryson' p. 301 cite 'William Marysone', 1298.

'High Hill' is a constructed toponymic byname, self-explanatory. Reaney & Wilson, s.n. 'Highe' cite 'Richard atte High' 1332; s.n. 'Hill' cite 'Gilbert del Hil', 1191, etc.

Also, Reaney & Wilson, s.n. 'Highet' 'dweller by the high gate' and s.n. 'Highfield', 'dweller by the high field.' (all p. 231).

Mills, s.n. 'Highgate' p. 179 cites 'le Heighgate' 1354. This shows use of 'High' as an adjective in a toponymic phrase.

Also note, Ekwall, s.n. 'Pishill' p. 367, cites 'Pushulle' 1219 and 'Pushull', 1247, 'hill where peas grow' to show [adjective] + 'hill' construction.

[Bardsley p. 776 s.n. 'Undrell' dates 'Underell' to 1625 and 'Undrill' to 1646, which is sufficient to gain the desired spelling though the dates could be earlier.]

Construction - '16th C. Spanish Names; Name Structure' by Elsbeth Anne Roth (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/spanish/index.html>), says that almost half of the names sampled were locatives, 'such as del Rio', similar to 'the sea' bynames found in French and Italian.

'del Mar' found in 'Dictionnaire étymologique des noms de famille', Morlet, pg. 303, 'Dela Mare.' Also found in the 'Online Tratte of Office Holders 1202-1532' (<http://www.stg.brown.edu/projects/tratte/doc/SURNAM1.html>) as 'Delmare.'

Submitter is interested in sound.

'Sadaqat' listed in 'Arabic Naming Practices & Period Names List' (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/daud/arabic-naming>) by Da'ud ibn Auda.

'Salas' - 'Spanish Names from the Late 15th Century: Locative Surnames' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/isabella/locative.html>) cites 'de Salas.' Also noted in the article are 'de Azcona' and 'de Azpetia' which are noted to also have been used as 'Azcona' and 'Azpetia.' This shows that the change from 'de Salas' to 'Salas' is plausible.

Gyronny gules and argent, eight roundels counterchanged

Name accepted at Laurel in September of 2002. Original device Gyronny gules and argent, eight roses counterchanged. returned at that time. The coupling with white roses and the surname 'of Yorkshire' was deemed to be presumptuous:

"The use of the white rose of York with the byname 'of York' has been disallowed since the LoAR of 11 Nov 77" (LoAR of December 1992). The combination of a white rose with the name element "of Yorkshire" appears to strike the same chords of presumption in the College and in the populace as does the combination of a white rose and the byname "of York".
