10 November 2003

Unto the East Kingdom College of Heraldry and all others who do receive this letter, greetings from Tanzos Istvan, Eastern Crown Herald!

This ILoI contains submissions received before 04 November, 2003 and has 32 numbered items. Commentary, as always, should be sent to the above address and is due on 15 December 2003.

Unless otherwise noted, submitters will accept all changes.

Good luck, and thanks again in advance for all the hard work you do!

In service,

Istvan Eastern Crown

1 Æthellind of Eisental (F) - resub name

Herald of Record: Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova

'Æthellind' dated to 800 in that spelling in Searle's 'Onomasticon Anglo-Saxonicum', s.n. 'Æthellind, Adallindis' p. 42: 'a concubine of Charlemagne'.

'Eisental': group name registered July 1985 via the East.

Her original name, 'Ethrelinda of Eisental', was returned on Laurel's January 2003 LoAR for lack of documentation for the spelling 'Ethrelinda'.

2 Agnarr Skulason - resub device

Herald of Record: Duncan von Halstern

Quarterly gules and sable, a cross argent, in sinister chief two swords in saltire and in dexter base a drinking horn all argent.

Name registered August 1998, via the East.

An earlier device, Quarterly gules and sable, in sinister chief two swords and in dexter base, a drinking horn all argent., returned on the East's February 2003 letter for being in violation of RfS XI.3 - Marshalling. His original device, Quarterly sable and gules, in fess a sword inverted and a drinking horn argent., was returned at Laurel in August of 1998 for the same reason:

This is being returned for breaking RfS XI.3., which states that 'Armory that appears to marshal independent arms is considered presumptuous.' The rule goes on to note that such marshalled fields 'may be used with identical charges over the entire field, or with complex lines of partition or charges overall that were not used for marshalling in period heraldry.' Additionally, 'Charged sections must all contain charges of the same type to avoid the appearance of being different from each other.' Since two different charges are used on the two sides of the palar line, this looks like the marshalled arms of Per fess sable and gules a sword inverted argent, impaled with Per fess gules and sable a drinking horn argent.

[The submitter will be told to draw the cross wider, so it is more prominent.]

3 Alessandra de Burgos - resub device

Herald of Record: Sancha de Flores

Azure, a castle argent within a bordure Or seme of roses gules.

Name accepted on the East's April 2003 IloI, which has not yet been sent to Laurel. Her original device, Azure, a chevron between two lilies and a castle argent., Was returned on the same letter for conflict:

The device has two conflicts. Beorn Collenferth bears Azure, a chevron between a harp, an axe reversed and a sabre-toothed tiger statant argent. (October, 1982 via Meridies) and Rannveigr Haakonardottir bears Azure, a chevron between two falcons close respectant and a drakkar's prow reversed argent. (December, 1983 via the East). All the charges around the chevron in all three cases are considered a single secondary group, and therefore there is a single CD for the change in type of all the secondary charges in both cases.

As this is a complete redesign it will clear those conflicts.

4 Andris Löwenstein (M) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Harold von Auerbach

Checky argent and sable, a cock purpure, langued wattled and combed gules, maintaining in its dexter claw a crampton palewise Or.

If changes must be made, submitter wishes to retain an unspecified language/culture.

'Andris' found dated to 1370, 1386-97, and 1497 in Talan Gwynek's 'Medieval German Given Names from Silesia' (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/talan/bahlow/>, PCA).

'Löwenstein' dated to 1483 in 'Handbuch der Heraldik' by D. L. Galbraith & Léon Jéquier p. 128 (PCA), though this may be modernized. It shows armory (In Silber ein auf einem grünen Dreieck stehender roter Leopard) for the name 'Löwenstein'. It is marked Schwaben 1483.

[Talan's article may also be found at http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/bahlow_v.htm, which doesn't require photocopies. Under 'Löwe' in Bahlow's 'German Names' we find Lowenkop 1413, Löwensprung 1480, Lewenbrust 1320.]

5 Aveline l'oisele (F) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Sancha de Flores

Argent, a pair of wings conjoined and displayed between three crescents gules.

'No major changes. Submitter wishes an authentic name for 13th century French culture and wants her surname to mean 'with wings, winged, the bird'.

'Aveline' from 'An Index to the Given Names in the 1292 Census of Paris' by Colm Dubh (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/paris.html>).

'l'oisele' is presented as a descriptive byname meaning 'the bird'; 'Dictionnaire de l'ancien français' by Algirdas Julien Greimas (PCA) dates 'oisele' to 1080 meaning 'the bird'. 'oisele' is the feminine form of 'oiseil', which the client would prefer, but she will take 'oiseil' if necessary.

[While the existence of a word does not necessarily indicate its use as a name, Morlet's 'Les noms de personne en Haute Picardie aux XII, XIV, XV siècles' dates 'Loisel' to 1388.]

6 Aveline l'oisele - new badge
Herald of Record: Sancha de Flores

(Fieldless) A pair of wings conjoined and displayed gules ensigned with a crescent argent.

7 Boden Henebry (M) - new name & new device
Herald of Record: Marcus Blackaert

Per chevron vert and argent, in chief three stags' heads erased to sinister Or and in base a lantern vert.

Submitter wishes his name to be changed to be authentic for 15th century Ireland.

'Boden' found, undated, in MacLysaght's 'Surnames of Ireland' p. 20 s.n. 'Boden': 'Perpetuated in the place-name Bodenstown...where Boden is a variant of Baldwin'.

'Henebry' also from MacLysaght, p. 154 s.n. 'Henebry', with no dates but: 'originally de Hindeburg and gaelicized de Hionburgha. This name in Ireland continuously since the thirteenth century'.

['Bodenstown' is a header in Room's 'A Dictionary of Irish Place-Names', glossed as 'Boden's Town' but again undated. Reaney & Wilson p. 33 s.n. 'Bawden, Boaden, Boden' shows 'Boden or Bawden Maylle 1591-5'.

8 Cateline la broderesse (F) - new change of holding name
Herald of Record: Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova
Current name: Jennifer of Eisental

Original name, 'Caitlyn MacKenzie', returned at Laurel in October of 1999 for conflict: Conflict with Caitlin nicCoinnich. MacKenzie is an anglicized form of mac Coinnich, making the two identical for the purposes of conflict. The submitter should also be told that mixing Gaelic and English forms in period is vanishingly rare. It would be better to have a name in either totally English or totally Gaelic forms.

No major changes. If changes must be made, submitter wishes to retain the meaning and French 13th century culture.

'Cateline' from Colm Dubh's 'An Index to the Given Names in the 1292 Census of Paris' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/paris.html>): 'Cateline qui oeuvre de soie'.

'la broderesse' from the same source: 'Guibour la broderesse'.

9 Christopher Calhoun (M) - new name & new device

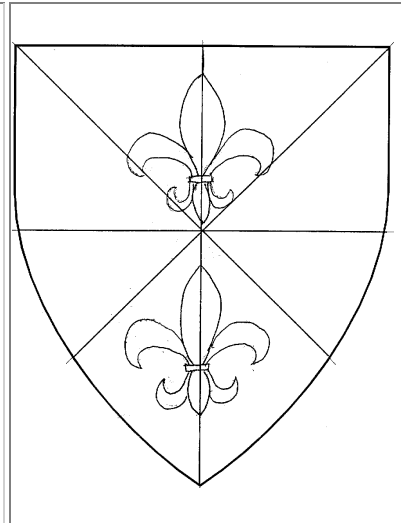

Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

Gyronny of 8 azure and argent, in pale two fleurs-de-lys counterchanged.

No major changes. If his name must be changed, submitter is more interested in the sound. He wishes his name to be changed to be authentic for English language/culture.

No documentation was provided with this name.

['Christopher' dated in that spelling to 1503 in Julian Goodwyn's 'Brass Enscription Index' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/brasses/>). The only information we could find for 'Calhoun' was the following, in Black. s.n. 'Colquhoun' p. 163-64: 'In the United States it has been shortened to Calhoun'. However, we did find the following dated spellings: Cachoun 1592, Calwhone 1329, Colhoun 1611, Culchoun 1309, Culquhoun 1499 and 1527. Between these, the desired spelling is probably a reasonable variant.]

10 Christopher Calhoun - new badge

Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

(Fieldless) On a cauldron sable enflamed proper a fleur-de-lys Or.

[The representation of proper flames seen here is no longer registerable. Flames proper have alternating tongues of red and yellow. Please conflict check this as if the flames were properly tinctured.]

11 Christopher de Frisselle (M) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Ian MacDonald

Azure, three cinquefoils [argent].

No major changes. Submitter wants an authentic name for 11th-12th century Norman French.

No documentation provided for 'Christopher'.

'de Frisselle' found, undated, in Black's Surnames of Scotland p. 278 s.n. 'Fraser, Frazer': 'The name was originally de Frisselle'.

['Christopher' is found easily enough in Withycombe, s.n. 'Christopher' p. 65 though that spelling is not dated. It gives the French form as 'Christophe' but as the submitter allows no major changes we cannot change the language of the name. Morlet vol 1 has a 'Christophorus', dated to 858, 923-927, 975-993, 988-1031, and 1010-1044. Also Christophorus 982, Christoforus 9th and 10th centuries, Christophalus 966, and Christopharus 985. Dauzat lists it under Christophle, as 'Christophe' and says there is a 3rd century saint and martyr by this name, and mentions the 'very popular legend from the middle ages about carrying the infant Christ'. Vol III has, s.n. Christophorus, many, many forms dated to period. Christophe 1270, 1274, 1314; Christophorus 1027, 1050, 13th Century, 1232, 1287, 1000, 1088; Christoforus 1185, 1217, 1232, 1127, 1478, 1330, 1082-1094, 1335, 15th Century; Christophori 1072, 1239, 1330, 1218; Christofori 1370, 1332, 1061; Christoforo 1269; Christofle 14th Century, 1347, 1410, 1316; Christofe 1448; Xristoffle 1457; and Xristofori 1120. The cinquefoils are argent, though this was omitted from the client's blazon. The color forms and computer-printed and highly pixilated, and new color forms will be needed for this device to be passed up to Laurel.]

12 Ding Li Ying - resub device
Herald of Record: Rhodri Ewian

Or, between three points pointy, on three piles in point azure, a lotus flower affronty argent.

Submitter's original device, Or, on a pile azure a lotus flower affronty argent., was returned on the East's April 2003 LoR for unblazonability: As submitted, the emblazon is not blazonable; the ordinary is not a pile, it is not a chausse, it is not per chevron inverted, it is not a chief triangular.

Name was on the December 2002 Eastern Internal Letter of Intent, accepted 9 April, 2003. It has not yet been sent to Laurel.

13 Douglas Henry - resub device
Herald of Record: Jan Janowicz Bogdanski

Sable, a seme of crosses couped Or, on a bend Or a wolf salient sable.

Submitter's original device, Sable crucilly couped, on a bend Or a wolf courant sable., was returned at Laurel in February of 2003 because the sable was light enough to be reblazoned as argent, causing contrast issues. This resubmission has entirely solved that problem.

His name was registered in February 2003, via the East.

14 Eberhardt von Sommerfeld (M) - new name
Herald of Record: Robin Gallowglass

Per bend sinister azure and sable, a stag lodged argent.

No major changes. If his name must be changed, the submitter wishes it to be German/Teutonic.

'Eberhardt' a header form in Bahlow's 'German Names' tr. Gentry p. 92. Dated to 1445, Count Eberhardt im Bart.

'von' German for 'from'.

'Sommerfeld' a header form in Bahlow, p. 478, undated: 'pl.n. on the Oder River'.

['Eberhardus' is found, dated to 1200-1250, in Talan Gwynek's 'German Given Names 1200-1250' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/germ13.html>).]

15 Gryffith FitzWilliam (M) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Klaus Rother

Per pale bendy Or and vert and Or, two stags springing respectant sable and on a chief embattled sable three suns in splendour Or.

No major changes. Submitter wishes a language/culture of Anglo-Welsh circa 1410. He does not wish his name to be changed to 'Griffin'.

'Gryffith': Withycombe's Oxford Dictionary of English Christian Names, 3rd ed. s.n. 'Griffin' p. 139 cites: '...in Shropshire Feudal Aids 1428...Griffinus seu Griffith Kynaston'. Tangwystyl's 'A Simple Guide to Constructing 13th Century Welsh Names' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/welsh13.html>) cites 'Griffid, Gryffid, Gryffyd' dated to 1292-3. Tangwystyl's 'A Simple Guide to Constructing 16th Century Welsh Names (in English Contexts)' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/welsh16.html>) cites 'Griffith, Gruffith, Gryffyth' dated to the 16th century. Given these spelling variations, 'Gryffith' should be a plausible spelling.

'FitzWilliam' found in Reaney & Wilson, s.n. 'FitzWilliam, FitzWilliams' p. 171: 'Edmund Fitzwilliam, 1424'.

16 Gwillim Kynith (M) - new name

Herald of Record: Brita Mairi Svensdottir

Submitter wishes his name to be changed to be more authentic for early 15th century Welsh.

'Gwillim' from Tangwystyl verch Morgant Glasvryn's 'A Simple Guide to Constructing 16th Century Welsh Names (in English Contexts)' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/welsh16.html>).

'Kynith' from Tangwystyl verch Morgant Glasvryn's 'A Simple Guide to Constructing 13th Century Welsh Names' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/welsh13.html>).

17 Iride Corsellini (F) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Harold von Auerbach

Gules, on an acorn Or and fleur-de-lys gules.

No major changes. Submitter wishes her name to be made authentic for Italian language/culture.

'Iride': S. Gabriel report #1961 (PCA) presents 'Iride' as the Italian form of 'Iris' and dates it to the Renaissance, referencing de Felice's 'Dizionario dei nomi italiani'.

'Corsellini' found in Florence since the 14th century, according to 'Le Famiglie Di Firenze' (PCA) by Roberto Ciabani. Also found in the 'Online Tratte of Office Holders 1282-1532' (<http://www.stg.brown.edu/projects/tratte/doc/SURNAM1.html>, NPCA).

[As we cannot read Italian, we cannot verify what either de Felice nor Ciabani say about this name. Iride is, however, a header in nomi, and Corsellini appears as a variant of the header Córsi in cognomi]

18 Jan Starszy (M) - new change of holding name

Herald of Record: Jan Janowicz Bogdanski

Current Name: Jan of the East

Original name submission, 'Jan Starszy Podró{z.}nika', returned at Laurel in April of 2003 for lack of documentation for two descriptive bynames in Polish, and for lack of documentation for Podró{z.}nika. The return stated the following:

Nebuly found information regarding the elements in this name:

The name Jan (John) appears in Polish at least as early as 1202 (SSNO, s.n. Jan), and is one of the most common Polish names for the next several centuries. Rymut documents Starszy to 1417 (s.n. Stary), and it does mean 'the elder/older' as given in the LoI.

This name would be registerable as Jan Starszy 'John the elder' or as Jan Wandrownyk 'John the wanderer'. However, both of these options are major changes. As the submitter did not allow major changes, we must return this name.

As the submitter is now willing to register 'Jan Starszy', this should not be a problem.

19 Juliana de Kent (F) - new name

Herald of Record: Klaus Rother

No major changes. Submitter wishes her name to be made authentic for English Tudor time period and language/culture.

'Juliana' found in Withycombe s.n. 'Julian(a)' p. 184 dated in that spelling to 1196-1220 and 1273. Also in 'Feminine Given Names from Kent, 1302-1363' by AElfwyn aet Gyrwum (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/aelfwyn/kentfemnames.html> , PCA).

'de Kent' found in Reaney & Wilson, s.n. 'Kent' p. 263: 'Nicholas de Kent, 1185...John a Kent, 1524'. Also, 'Kent' is found as a surname in 'Faire Names for English Folk: Late Sixteenth Century English Names' by Christian de Holacombe (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/christian/fairnames/surnames.html> , PCA).

['Juliana' is also found in the late 16th century, closer to the submitter's desired time period, in 'Late Sixteenth Century English Given Names' by Talan Gwynek (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/eng16/eng16alpha.html>).]

20 Katerina das Vögelein (F) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

Vert, a pale chequy argent and sable between four horseshoes argent.

No major changes. If her name must be changed, submitter is more interested in the sound.

'Katerina': Bahlow's 'German Names' s.n. 'Katharina' p. 260 dates 'Katerinen' 'H. Katherine's son' to 1336. Also, the form 'Katherina' is found dated to 1495 in Aryanhwych merch Catmael's 'German Given Names from 1495' (<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/german1495.html>).

Between these two, the desired form is probably reasonable.

'Vögelein' is found, undated, in Bahlow's 'German Names' s.n. 'Vogel' p. 526. Dated names with the same base include: Vogel and Vogelfang 1373, 1355; Vogler 1363; Vogeler 1297; and Vogelweyder 1390.

21 Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova (M) - new alternate name & new badge

Herald of Record: Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova

Submitted Name: Gaufroi le crieur

(Fieldless) An escallop per pale gules and azure.

'Gaufroi' from Colm Dubh's 'An Index to the Given Names in the 1292 Census of Paris' (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/paris.html>): 'Gaufroi le tainturier'.

'le crieur' from the same source: 'Hervy le crieur'.

Name registered August 1998, via the East.

22 Keaiji no Nyûdô Nyôdai (F) - new name & new badge

(Fieldless) Three butterflies displayed argent, marked sable, one and two, bottom wings conjoined.

Submitter wishes her name to be changed to be authentic for 15th century Japan, and wishes a name meaning 'nun of Keaiji Temple'.

Manabe, Shunsho. 'The Life of Abbess Mugai Nyodai' (http://www.columbia.edu/cu/ealac/imjs/programs/1998-fall/manabe_speech.html) PCA - it mentions the 'homei', or religious name, of the abbess as 'Mugai Nyodai', and that she died in 1298, at the age of 76.

Lasrove, Anne. 'Memorial Service for Mugai Nyodai' Institute for Medieval Japanese Studies, vol.6 No.1 June 1995. (<http://www.columbia.edu/cu/ealac/imjs/reports/1995-06>) PCA.

Ruch, Barbara. 'Report on Imperialist Buddhist Convent Survey' Institute for Medieval Japanese Studies, vol.6 No.1 June 1995. (same) PCA.

'Kana Text-MIHO Museum' (<http://www.miho.or.jp/booth/html/doccon/00000640.htm>) - details the existence of the Rinzai sect temple Keaiji which was founded by Mugai Nyoadi in the 13th century.

A personal conversation with Ii Saborou (a gentleman with a Japanese persona from the Washington D.C. area) Nov 25-26, 2002. It mentions no sources, nor does it have full headers, and thus cannot be used. It documents a number of name formations for Japanese women.

Tisdale, Jiko. 'Ancestors: Lost Stories' Tricycle.com (http://tricycle.com/currentissue/ancestors_45.htm) PCA - the article is no longer there. It mentions that women in Japan are commonly known by a single name in histories. It also says that Chinese women's names are spelled in a variety of ways.

[The individual elements appear to have been documented, but the name formation has not. We will attempt to get in touch with Ii Saborou to clarify his documentation.]

23 Lachlan Mac an Toisich of Benchar (M) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Esperanza Razzolini D'Asolo

Vert, a bend sinister argent and overall a cross bottony Or.

If his name must be changed, the submitter wishes to retain a Highland Scottish 16th century Gaelic language/culture.

'Lachlan' is a header form in Black, p. 410. The following dated spellings are given: Lochlan 1166, Lachlane 1417, Lachlin 1431. Between these the desired spelling seems reasonable.

'Mac an toisich' is given as the Gaelic form on Macintosh in Black, p. 518 s.n. Macintosh, though that form is undated. Maybe dated forms are given, including Mctoschy 1382, Mackyntoich 1468, Mc yntosh 1492, Machyntoys 1500, Macintosh 1528, M'Cuintosych 1557, Mackantoiss 1591, M'kiltosche 1627, M'Intoch 1532, Makintoch 1597, McKintoch 1477, McKintoche 1644, Mackintoche 1472, and many others. None, however, seem to support the desired spelling as a period name, rather than a modern Gaelic form.

'of Benchar': Benchar is the name of lands awarded to the clan after the battle of Bannockburn, according to a photocopy attached to the submission which omits the title page and, indeed, both title and author of the book being photocopied. We could find no other documentation for Benchar as a place name.

[Please consider this precedent:

(November 2001, Iain Macquarrie of Ulva) This name is being returned for combining the name of a clan with the clan seat of that clan. This is a long-standing precedent best summarized in the LoAR of March 1993:

We will continue to prohibit the use of a Scots clan name with the seat or territory of that clan (e.g. Cameron of Lochiel), or a surname with the phrase of that Ilk (or its functional equivalent, e.g. Macintosh of Macintosh). That usage, with or without the given name, is the title of the actual chief of the clan or his immediate kin; its use in the SCA represents a direct infringement on actual nobility, and also appears to be a claim to rank, either of which is grounds for return. (Alexander MacIntosh of Islay, March, 1993, pp. 7-8)

]

24 Liadan An Sionnach (F) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Aethelwulf Stealcere

Per fess sable and gules, in chief a torteau fimbriated and in base a fox sejant argent.

If her name must be changed, submitter wishes to retain an unspecified meaning.

'Liadan' documented from a number of web pages, none of which are on the no-photocopy list and none of which have copies provided.

'Sionnach' from Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's 'Index of Names in Irish Annals: Descriptive Bynames: Sinnach/Sionnach' (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/AnnalsIndex/DescriptiveBynames/Sionnach.shtml> , PCA), with the desired spelling dated to 1233, 1316, and 1400.

The only documentation provided for the particle 'an' is the fact that 'an Sionnach' has been registered twice in the past. As past registration is no guarantee of future registerability, this is of no use.

We are tempted to return this name presumptively for lack of supplied documentation for the given name, but as we can document it ourselves, we shall do so.

['Liadan' from O'Corrain & Maguire p. 122 s.n. Líadan, Líadain, Líadaine. 'Líadan was also the name of the mother of St Ciarán of Seir. Líadan is also the name of one of the patron saints if the Dál Cais'. It is undated, however recent precedent upholds the use of saints' names:

So, in summary, given names which can be documented as the given name of a saint may be registered as a given name. The use of a name documented as a saint's name carries no weirdness in and of itself. The only weirdnesses that derive from using that name come from the lingual mix of the submitted form of the saint's name with the rest of the submitted name.

[09/01, CL]]

25 Mikulaj von Meissen (M) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

Per pale vert and sable, on a pale argent a Thor's hammer inverted sable.

No major changes. If his name must be changed, submitter is more interested in Polish language/culture.

No documentation was provided for the name, but we have found the following:

'Mikulaj' found in Walraven van Nijmegen and Arval Benicoeur's 'Polish Given Names in Nazwiska Polaków' (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/walraven/polish/>), with the following caveat: 'I have reconstructed the given names from which these surnames were formed. I have restricted myself to surnames dated in period, but the spellings I have chosen for the given names are not necessarily period ones and in some cases are simply the standard modern forms. The appearance of a name in this list proves that some form of it was used in period Poland, but not necessarily the form that I've chosen.'

'von' is the German article meaning 'from', but we have been unable to find documentation of 'Meissen' as a place name.

26 Morgan Farraday - new household name

Herald of Record: Brita Mairi Svendsdottir

Submitted Name: The Crimson Scorpion

Name registered as 'Morgan Faraday' in November of 1997.

No documentation provided. The submission states only, 'The Crimson Scorpion is the name of Morgan's ship, He wants to register it as a household name for his crew.

[Unless this name can be documented by our commenters, it will be returned for lack of documentation.]

27 Richard Crowe (M) - new name & new device

Herald of Record: Marcus Blackaert

Checky of nine, sable and argent, four crows soaring in cross sable.

Submitter wishes his name to be changed to be authentic for the 12th century.

Richard found in Reaney & Wilson Rev. Ed. on p. 377 s.n. 'Richard' et. al.: 'Richard Rykelot 1315'.

Crowe found in same, p. 118 s.n. 'Crow, Crowe': 'Nicholas Crowe 1187', 'John le Crowe 1332'.

28 Ronald Wilmot - new badge

Herald of Record: Jan Janowicz Bogdanski

(Fieldless) A squirrel maintaining a torch Or.

Name registered in April of 1981 via the West. This badge to be associated with the household name House Wilmot, registered via the East in June 1993.

29 Rupert the Unbalanced - resub device

Herald of Record: Gwalchmai ap Talan

Or, a chevron gules between in chief two pairs of arrows inverted in saltire and in base three goblets one and two sable.

Name registered in December of 1990 via the East. Original device, Or goutty de sang, three cups sable., registered at the same time. If this device is registered, he wishes the old one to be changed to a badge.

This device returned at Laurel on the October 2002 LoR for a redraw:

The chevron is too narrow, well less than one-third of the width that one would expect of the somewhat narrowish chevron that would fit between a group of secondary charges like these. It must be drawn more prominently to be acceptable.

This resubmission fixes this problem nicely.

30 Tanczos Ilona (F) - new name and device
Herald of Record: Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova

Per pale purple and argent, six periwinkles, two, two and two, counterchanged.

'Ilona' dated to 1569 in 'Régi Magyar Családnevek Szótára' by Kázmer Miklós (PCA), p. 493 s.n. 'Ilona': 'Ilona János'.

'Tanczos' dated to 1563 in same, p. 1043 s.n. 'Táncos': 'Christophorus Tanczos'

The reversed order of family name first and given name last is demonstrated under the same header as 'Tanczos': 'Thanczos Ferenc' 1450, 'Tanczios István' 1603.

[It is not an unmarked patronymic, which would have to be registered in surname-last order, it is either a descriptive or occupational byname, meaning 'dancer'. Eastern Crown knows this off the top of his head. Not particularly surprising, in this case.]

31 Werner der Fromme (M) - new name & new device

Azure, a chevron lozengy argent and sable between two maltese crosses argent and a lion rampant maintaining a halberd Or.

No major changes. If his name must be changed, submitter is more interested in the sound.
