01 August 2004

Unto the East Kingdom College of Heraldry and all others who do receive this letter, greetings from Tanczos Istvan, Eastern Crown Herald!

This ILoI contains submissions received before 28 July 2004 and has 20 numbered items. Commentary, as always, should be sent to the above address and is due on 31 August 2004.

As many of you may already know, this will be the last Internal Letter of Intent I issue as Eastern Crown. I've held this office for three years now, and it's time to step down. After that, it's up to Eldrich Gaiman, who will be replacing me in the office of Eastern Crown Herald. Before I go, I will be doing decisions for all the internal letters up to and including this one, so that Eldrich can jump into Pennsic with both feet.

Good luck, and thanks again in advance for all the hard work you have done for my tenure. I'm sure you'll keep doing the same for Eldrich!

In service,
Istvan, Eastern Crown Emeritus

1 Aaron the Arrowsmith (M) - New Name
Herald of Record: Gwalchmai ap Talan

No major changes. Submitter desires sound 'Aaron the Arrowsmith'.

Aaron from Withycombe, s.n. Aaron, dated in that spelling to 1199.

Arrowsmith from R&W, p 14, 1278.

2 Alys Mackyntoich (F) - New Name Change
Herald of Record: Ailis Mac an Toisich
Current Name: Ailis Catriona Mac an Toisich

Alys from Gwynek's A List of Feminine Personal Names Found in Scottish Records (http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/scottish_fem.html). Also lists Alicia (1250), Alycie (1280), and Alesone (1492). Also, variants appear in <http://www.thepeerage.com> (attached), Alice Comyn (c1296-1349), Alice Erskine (born c 1290), Alice Mac Donnell (born c. 1540). Given that Alycie was used in Scotland and 'Alys' was a common English spelling of the same name, the submitter argues that it would not be implausible for it to be used as a female Scots name in the latter half of period. Alys can be documented from R&W, s.n. Motley, gives an Alys in 1525, s.n. Alis gives an Alis in 1214, Dambell gives an Alis in 1327. Julian Goodwyn's English Names Found in Brass Enscriptions gives an Alys in 1503. Mari's Names and Naming Practices in the Registers of the Church of St. Mary's, Dymock gives Alys (1538/9), Allys (1565), Alis (1539) and Alyce (1438/9).

Mackyntoich is in Black, s.n. Macintosh. The submitted spelling can be found dated to 1468. Other dated forms: Makintoch 1597, McKintoch 1477, Mackintoche 1472, etc. Note that combining English and Gaelic is only one weirdness, as per the decision on Ian MacHenrik on the 10/99 LoAR

If the name can not be passed, the submitter would like the 'Catriona' to be dropped from her current name, so she's "Ailis Mac an Toisich", which is grandfathered to her.

Her current name was passed in May 1990, via the East. Her old name is to be released if this one passes.

3 Alys Mackyntoich (F) - New Alternate Name
Herald of Record: Ailis Mac an Toisich
Submitted Name: Alays de Brantôme

No major changes.

Alays from Aryanhwy's Feminine Names from Périgueux, 1339-1340 (<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/perigueux.html>).

Brantôme from Dauzat & Rostaing's Dictionnaire étymologique des noms de lieux en France, p 111. Brantôme is a town on Dordogne (SW France), formerly the Duchy of Aquitaine. It is also in Dauzauder s.n. Branthomme. There is also a web page printout from www.britannica.com which details one Pierre de Brantôme, born c 1540, died 1614. His full name is apparently 'Pierre de Bourdeille, Abbé Et Seigneur'.

A copy of the latter is attached, it does indeed translate 'annwyl' or 'anwyl-' as 'beloved'.

9 Jehanne Urchurdan (F) - Appeal Household Name

Herald of Record: Asceline Barret

Submitted Name: Sea Dragon Keep

No changes. This is an appeal of a May 24, 2004 return.

The OED compact edition, page 2692 dated "Sea Dragon" to 1551. There is a Laurel Precedent regarding 'keep', which states 'keep is the designator here' in a ruling on a household name. (See 'Seeker's Keep', Sept 1992, <http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/precedents/CompiledNamePrecedents/HouseholdGuildNames.html>).

There is nothing else. This will be returned for several reasons. First, the paperwork is not properly filled out -- among other issues, the submitter did not sign the form and the 'Date Returned' is listed as 24 May, 2004. The actual return was done on the 2003-July-10 LoR, dated 15 September 2003. The appeal also does not address the reason for return: there was no documentation found that this household name fits the allowable pattern for household names. The Administrative Handbook says:

All appeals must be supported by new documentation, other proof that the original submission was returned in error, or by compelling evidence that the submission was not properly considered at the time of return.

Nothing that could be construed as fitting any of the requirements is attached.

Note that Laurel, when contacted, pointed out that the AH, section IV.C, requires that paperwork be complete for all submissions, including appeals, and kingdom is fully justified in returning this incomplete appeal for lack of completed paperwork.

It conflicts with Solondra Carryl (December 1983, via Meridies): Sable, a heart argent. with a single CD for the addition of the chain. The new submission has added the bordure.

14 Rónán Sharpe Lynceus (M) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record:
Gwalchmai ap Talan

Azure, a lynx combatant argent a chief rayonny Or.

Rónán from 100 Most Popular Men's Names in Early Medieval Ireland ( <http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/irish100.html>).

Sharpe is from Manx Names in the Early 16th Century (

<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/jonesmanx16.html>)

Lynceus: the submitter gives evidence that descriptive names were used in period in Ireland: OCM p 122, sn.n Liber, dated to 620. The word Lynceus is found in The First Hypertext Edition of the Dictionary of Phrase and Fable, by Brewer, at <http://kenji.ac.kr/my/references/phrase/data/758.html>, which claims that somebody from fable (either Perseus' grandfather or grandson, from what I've been able to find elsewhere), 'was so sharp sighted he could see through the Earth'. The submitter says it means 'lynx-eyed'.

[The last link doesn't work -- the information can be found at

A valid petition for both order name and badge is attached, but no demonstration that this fits the allowable patterns for order names.

[The device conflicts with that of André of Stormhold (October 1998, via Lochac): "Argent, a whale naiant azure." with but one CD for the color of the primary. The grandfather clause does not apply here, as the barony's armory is clear of André's]

Wormwood is a constructed surname composed of the elements 'wurm', meaning 'snake' or 'dragon' and 'wudu', meaning wood. Ekwall s.n. 'Wormwood scrubbs' has dated forms of
