Unto Francois Laurel, Margaret Pelican, Gwenllian Wreath, and the entire College of Arms, greetings from Tanczos Istvan, Blue Tyger Herald!

It is the intent of the East to have the following items registered:

1 Diego Mundoz - New Device

Quarterly gules and Or, a bear statant regardant sable.

The submission includes a letter for permission to conflict from Ursula Georges (March 2000 via An Tir): Gules, a bear passant sable.

The submitter's name was registered in February 1982 (via the East). The submitter also owns a device and three badges, which can be found in the SCA Ordinary and Armorial at http://oanda.sca.org/cgi-bin/oanda_name.cgi?p=Diego%20Mundoz. Upon successful registration of this submission, the submitter wishes to release his old device, Quarterly gules and Or, in pale a brown bear statant regardant proper between two hunting horns unstrung sable, which was registered with his name.

2 Elisabetta Tempesta - New Primary Name & New Device

Azure, three clouds argent.

No major changes. The client desires a female name.

'Elisabetta' is in DeFelice, Nomi, s.n. 'Elisabetta', which notes it as a name found throughout Italy. The name 'Elizabeta' can be found in "Fourteenth Century Venetian Personal Names" by Arval Benicoeur and Talan Gwynek (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/arval/venice14/>). 'Elizabeth', 'Isabetta', 'Lisa', and 'Lisabetta' can be found in "Italian Renaissance Women's Names" by Rhian Lyth of Blackmoor Vale (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/italian.html>). 'Lisa', 'Isabetta', 'Isabella', and 'Lisabetta' appear in "Feminine Given Names from the Online Catasto of Florence of 1427" by Arval Benicoeur (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/arval/catasto/>). Given the variety of spellings, 'Elisabetta' seems to be a plausible period Italian name.

'Tempesta' is in Fucilla, which on p. 224 lists 'Tempesta' as a descriptive byname used to describe a quick-tempered person.

The device, under current precedent, conflicts with Cassandra de la Mistral (April of 1973) 'Azure, a Boreas (wind) affronty argent' with one CD for change of number of the primary (RfS X.4.f.). It receives no CD for a change of type (RfS X.4.e.) as per the following precedent from the February 1994 LoAR:

Damales Redbeard.
Household badge for Maison du Cheval Volant. Azure, on a cloud argent, a horseshoe inverted sable.
Conflict with Cassandra de la Mistral (SCA), Azure, a Boreas affronty argent. There is only one CD for the addition of the tertiary, and even that is minimal because it lies where the "face" of Cassandra's Boreas is.
Additionally, the cloud here is not drawn in a period manner, but is the modern "cotton candy" form of cloud.

Given the multiple differences between the cloud returned in this precedent and the clouds in this submission, both the submitter and Eastern Crown desire consideration by Laurel.

3 Erich Hundeman - New Primary Name & New Device

Azure, a hound sejant Or tongued and collared gules maintaining in a raised paw a plate and on a chief embattled Or three hurts.

No major changes. The submitter desires a male name.

'Erich' is from Gentry's translation of Bahlow's Dictionary of German Names (2nd ed. 2002) p. 107, s.n. 'Erich'. Dated examples include 'Erich of Hoya' 1377-1426 and 'Erich of Lauenberg' 1357-1422.

'Hundeman' is in same, p. 239, s.n. 'Hund(t)' as undated variant. Similar forms are found on p. 241 where 'Husman' is dated to the 14th Century, and on p. 453 which dates 'Snickeman' to 1268.

Bahlow translates 'Hundeman' as meaning 'guards of the hunting dogs'.

The submitter has been instructed to draw the embattlements and hurts in a bolder fashion.

4 Haukes Reche, Canton of - New Group Name

No major changes.

Ekwall, p. 216 s.n. 'Hawkwell', "Hawks stream or spring" or "crooked stream" with dated forms 'Hakewell' 1202, 1236, 'Hawekeswell' 1242, 'Haukewell' 1260.

Ekwall p. 364 s.n. 'Reach', "portion of a river", 'Reche' H., I; 'Rache' 1276 'Reche' 1276.

A valid petition is included.

The name was changed at kingdom from "Hawk's Reach" to better match the dated spellings in the submitted documentation.

5 Jeremiah MacCoull - New Primary Name

No major changes. The submitter desires a male name.

'Jeremiah' is dated to 1576-7 in Kathleen O'Brien's Masculine Given Names in Chesham, 1538-1601 at (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/chesham/>).

'MacCoull' is dated to 1557 s.n. 'MacDougal' in Black, The Surnames of Scotland (12th reprinting 1999), p. 487-8, reading, "Johne MacCoull of Dunnollycht (Dunollie) had a license from Archibald, Earl of Argyll, 1557".

The mixing of English and Scots is considered one step from period practice, but is acceptable according to precedent. ('Karina Roseheartly, September 2001 LoAR; 'Ian MacHenrik', October 1999 LoAR).

6 Maunus Sataielka - New Primary Name

No major changes. The submitter would prefer an unmarked patronymic if possible. If not, she prefers 'poitca', which is Finnish for 'son' (no source).

'Maunu' is a header spelling found in Vanhat nimityyppimme by Rouva Gertrud at (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/FinnishNamesArticle.htm>), which lists 'Maunus Maunusson' dated to 1578.

'Satajalka' - ibid. header 'Sata-' lists 'Sataielka aff Karuiti' to 1390.

The name was changed at kingdom from 'Maunu Satajalka' to better match dated spellings from the provided documentation.

7 Úna inghean an Druaidh - New Primary Name & New Device

Purpure, a sun in his splendor argent between three mullets Or.

No major changes. The submitter desires a female name and has requested authenticity for Irish/Gaelic language/culture.

Úna' is from OC&M. p. 176, s.n. 'Úna', which says "This is an extremely popular name especially in later medieval Ireland" fem. given Irish Gaelic name.

'mac an Druaidh' is from MacLysaght, p.91, s.n. 'Drury', which says it is the Gaelic form of 'Drury', meaning 'druid.' No dates are given.

The name was changed at kingdom from 'Úna mac an Druaidh' in order to maintain consistent gender.

8 Zaneta Angiolieri - New Primary Name & New Device

Per bend paly Or and sable and gules, a bend and in base suspended between the horns of a decreascent a mullet Or.

The submitter requests authenticity for 15th century Italian language/culture, and desires a female name.

'Zaneta' is from Fourteenth Century Venetian Personal Names by Arval Benicoeur and Talan Gwynek (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/arval/venice14/>) as a pet form of Giovanná/Gia{n'}eta.

'Angiolieri' is from Florentine Renaissance Resources: Online Tratte of Office Holders 1282-1532 at <http://www.stg.brown.edu/projects/tratte/doc/TLSURNAM1.html>.

There are seven new names and five new pieces of armory, for a total of twelve submissions. A check for $48 will be sent separately.
