Kolosvari Arpadne Julia
eastern.crown@eastkingdom.org

Tuesday, October 17th, 2006

Unto the East Kingdom College of Heralds and all others who do receive this letter, greetings from Kolosvari Arpadne Julia, Eastern Crown Herald!

This ILoI contains submissions received before August 19th, 2006 and has 57 numbered items (45 names, 52 armory). Commentary, as usual, should be sent to the above address and/or the LoC email list, and is due by Friday, November 17th, 2006.

As usual, blazons are given as submitted, except for minor spelling corrections and the expansion of abbreviations. Name documentation is also generally transcribed straight from the provided paperwork, without verification or elaboration. Standard Latin abbreviations: s.n. stands for sub nomine 'under the name', ibid. is short for ibidem 'in the same place', and op. cit. is opere citato '[in] the work cited [above or previously]'. Unless otherwise noted, any required photocopies can be assumed to be present. Also unless mentioned otherwise, submitters will allow all necessary changes for registration, and have made no request for authenticity.

Enjoy!

Julia Eastern Crown

1 Adelasia della Corte - New Device
Herald of Record: Isibel in Kyrra

Argent, a horse rampant contourny, in dexter chief a sheaf of arrows points to dexter sable within a bordure potenty gules.

Her name was registered in Mar. 2005 via the East.

---

2 Adhemar de Villarquamada (m) - New Name Change & New Badge
Herald of Record: Rowen Troubadour
Current name: Morgan de Villarquamada

(Fieldless) A torteau within and conjoined to four fleurs-de-lys in cross bases to center Or.

No major changes.

His current name and device (Or, semy-de-lys gules, a griffin segreant sable and a chief counter-ermine) were registered in Apr. 1990 via the East. His old name is to be released if this submission is registered. If his name must be changed, he cares most about an unspecified language and/or culture.

Adhemar is found in Juliana de Luna's "Occitan Townspeople in the 14th Century - Masculine Given Names" (http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/occitan/occitan-given-men.html).

de Villarquamada is grandfathered to the submitter.

The badge form notes that this submission is a visual call against Eibhlín ní Chaoimh (Apr. 2000 Æthelmearc): (Fieldless) On four demi-fleurs conjoined in cross Or a torteau.
3 Áédán mac Tigernáin (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Mari Elspeth nic Bryan / Eleazar ha-Levi

Quarterly azure and vert, a cross between two wolves' heads erased in bend argent.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about "10th century Irish-Scot" language and/or culture.

Both name parts are found in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Index of Names in Irish Annals" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/AnnalsIndex/Masculine/). Áedán is given as the standard nominative form of this name for both Old (c700-c900) and Middle (c900-c1200) Irish Gaelic. It's found in the annals between 505 and 949 as the name of 24 men. Tigernáin is given as the standard genitive form of Tigernán for the Middle Irish Gaelic (c900-c1200) period. This name is found in the annals as the name of three men, dated to 980, 1201, and 1313.

4 Ailill Mac Cúán (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Solveig / Dougal

Per pall sable, gules, and argent, a mullet of four points argent and two stags salient addorsed counterchanged.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about 11th century Irish language and/or culture. [The worksheet has this written in the authenticity request section, but the form leaves that section entirely blank.]

Ailill is dated to 802 and 1032 on p. 17 of OCM.

Mac means Son of.

Cúán is dated to 1024 on p. 65 of OCM.

5 Ailionora inghean Ronain - Resub Device
Herald of Record: Palotzi Marti

Argent, a quill pen and a trumpet in saltire sable between four trefoils in cross and a border nebuly vert.

Her name was registered in May 2003, via the East. Her previous device submission (Argent, a quill and trumpet sable crossed per saltire nested of four trefoils vert, a border nebuly vert) was returned on the 2002-03 LoR for a redraw because the bordure was too narrow.

6 Aislinn Chiabach (f) - New Name Change & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Haworth / Otfrid Ammerthaler
Current name: Aislinn Chas

Purpure, a bat displayed argent, on a chief Or a jester's cap lozengy in bend purpure and argent belled argent.

No major changes.

Her current name was registered Jul. 97 via the East. It is to be released if this submission is successful. If her name must be changed, she cares most about sound and Irish language and/or culture.

Aislinn has been ruled SCA-compatible (Aislinn inghean Mhaoil bhrighde, 08/2000 A-Atlantia).

Ciabach is found in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Index of Names in Irish Annals: Masculine Descriptive Bynames" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/AnnalsIndex/DescriptiveBynames/index.shtml) as a masculine byname meaning 'long-haired'. It's found in the annals as the name of two men, dated 1151 and 1232. The submission form asserts that adding the 'h' makes it feminine.

7 Aline Kinneir (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Caitriona inghean Ui Bhraonain / Giovanna di Milano

Sable, on a saltire between four mullets of four points elongated to base argent, a thistle proper.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sound 'Ay-lean Kin-ear'.

Aline is dated to 1428 in Talan Gwynek's "Feminine Given Names in A Dictionary of English Surnames" (http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/reaneyAG.html).

Kinneir is dated to 1574 in Black s.n. Kinnear.

8 Anne Whyte of Sedgewicke (f) - New Change Of Holding Name
Herald of Record: Robin Gallowglass
Current name: Anne of Whyt Whey

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sound. Her previous name submission of Anne Whyte was returned (Mar. 2005, R-East) for conflict with Anne De Witte (reg. Feb. 87 via the East). This submission adds an element to clear that conflict.

Anne is found in Talan Gwynek's "Feminine Given Names in A Dictionary of English Surnames" (http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/reaneyAG.html), dated to 1566 (Thackeray), 1568 (Hamlet), 1576 (Coryat), and 1592 (Vicars).

Whyte is dated to 1419 in Julian Goodwyn's "English Names Found in Brass Enscriptions" (http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/brasses). This spelling is also found in "Names from 15th Century York" by Karen Larsdatter (http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/york15/index.htm).

Sedgewicke is found on pages lix and lxxiii of References to English Surnames in 1601 and 1602 by F.K.

& S. Hitching. The place (in Westmoreland) is recorded as early as c. 1185 (as Sigghiswic), according to Ekwall p. 411 s.n. Sedgwick, but none of the no-photocopy placename books have a later spelling.

The form of the name is intended as given name + family name + address.

9 Ardenia Ruad (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Juliana de Luna / Istvan

Argent, a rowan tree blasted and eradicated sable between two stags combattant gules.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sound of the given name, 'Ar-den-ee-ah'. The name form also says the submitter prefers Ardenia, but will accept Ardania.

Morlet Vol. I p. 124 column b dates Ardanius a. 910-27, and Ardennus a. 988. The submitter and her herald believe, based on a pattern of (a) men and women using the same vernacular names with gender-appropriate Latinizations, and (b) the formation of feminine names from masculine ones, that Ardenia is plausible.

Ruad is listed as the standard Middle Irish Gaelic (c.900-c.1200) nominative form of the byname Ruadh 'red' in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Index of Names in Irish Annals: Descriptive Bynames" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/AnnalsIndex/DescriptiveBynames/index.shtml). The byname is dated to 1039, 1109, and at least a dozen times in every century after that.
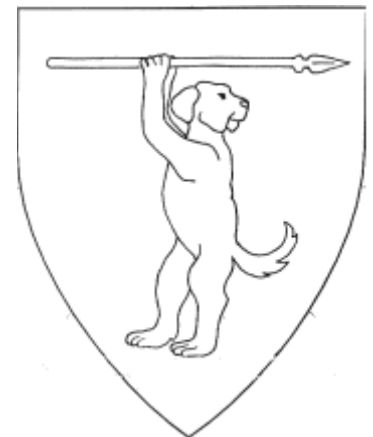

10 Asgar Roulfs sunu (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Brunissende / Nikolai Domingo

Azure, a mastiff statant erect reguardant sustaining a spear fesswise reversed argent.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound. The form also says "Keep Asgar!!! Changes to the last name if needed."

Asgar is found in The Pre-Conquest Personal Names of Domesday Book by Olof von Feilitzen, p. 166. [No photocopies provided.]

Roulfs sunu is intended to mean 'son of Roulf'. Roulf is found in Onomasticon Anglo-Saxonicum by W.G. Searle, p. 573.

11 Ben of Broken Bridge (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Brunissende / Gisela vom Kreuzbach

Argent, a griffin segreant and on a base azure a pair of rapiers in saltire argent.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound.

Ben is found in R&W p. 39 under Benn. The entry dates Benne de Ecclesille 1246, indicating use as a given name, and Thomas Ben 1275, indicating the possibility of this spelling.

The name of the (incipient) Canton of Brokenbridge was forwarded to Laurel on the May Eastern xLoI, which is scheduled to be decided at the September meetings. [The canton's name is submitted as all one word, but the forms for this submission consistently write it as two.]

12 Bruce Murray (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Wacerhild / Michael Batcok

Azure, a yew tree eradicated between three stags Or.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound.

Bruce is the submitter's legal given name. [Copy of state ID card included.]

Murray is a header spelling in Black; William de Morreve is dated to 1296. [It might actually say Morrew or maybe even Morrey, but I can't make out the end bit on either the form or the worksheet.]

13 Cainnech mac Uilliam (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Palotzi Marti

Per fess azure and Or, in fess a thistle proper sustained by a stag rampant proper armed argent.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound.

Cainnech is a header on p. 43 of OCM, dated to 929.

mac is the Irish patronymic particle.

Uilliam is a header on p. 175 of OCM, dated to before the 14th century in Ireland (when the diminutive 'Uillec' appears).

14 Caitríona MacLeod (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Gisela vom Kreuzbach

Per chevron vert, semy of bees proper, and argent, a wooden spoon proper.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sound.

MacLeod is a header spelling on p. 538 of Black, dated to 1227.

Caitríona is given as the standard (modern Irish) Gaelic form of this name in OCM p. 45 s.n. Caiterína. Catrina is dated to 1557 in Talan Gwynek's "Feminine Given Names in Scottish Records" under post-1400 Katherine. Caitrina is dated to 1467 in Sharon L. Krossa's "Scottish Gaelic Given Names for Women" (http://www.medievalscotland.org/scotnames/gaelicgiven/women/caitrina.shtml). [No copies.] The submitter prefers the submitted form (with the two vowels between the 'r' and the 'n').

15 Ceolfara æt Mældun - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Michael Batcok

Sable, a fret Or between four crosses patonce argent.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sounds 'kel-fara' and 'at'. No gender is marked for the submitted name.

Ceolfara is a constructed Anglo-Saxon name, using the prototheme Ceol- (Searle p. 129) and the deuterotheme -fara (Searle p. 240).

æt is the A.S. preposition 'at'.
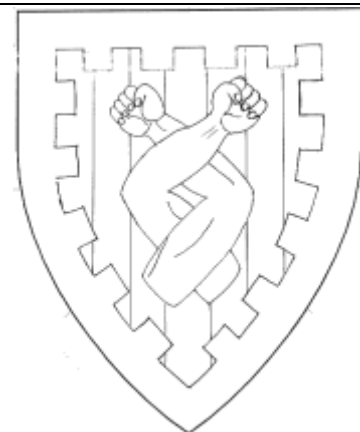

Mældun is dated to 913 in Ekwall p. 297 s.n. Malden.

---

16 Christophe Lejeune (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Juliana de Luna / canute

Paly argent and vert, two arms counterembowed and interlaced within a bordure embattled sable.

Christophe is given as a 14th-15th c. given name in Morlet Picardie, p. 20.

Lejeune is dated to 1475, ibid p. 405 s.n. Le Jeune.

---

17 Conall O'Rylan (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Alys Mackyntoich / Robin Gallowglass

Gules, on a chevron Or between three lions rampant argent, five fleurs-de-lys gules.

The sound 'Rylan' is most important.

Conall appears in Mari's Index of Names in Irish Annals dated to 1501-1600. It also appears in OCM p. 56 s.n. Conall, which lists two Saint Conalls and several legendary Conalls.

O'Rylan is an italicized Anglicized form s.n. Ó Roitleáin in Woulfe p. 634; the name is described as "an attenuated form of Ó Rotláin."

18 Corwin Silvertongue - Resub Device
Herald of Record: Otfrid Ammerthaler

Sable, a winged wolf rampant argent charged at the shoulder with a heart gules, a chief rayonny argent.

His name was forwarded to Laurel on the May 2006 xLoI. His previous device resubmission, Sable, a winged wolf rampant between three wolves' heads couped ululant argent, was returned from the June 2006 ILoI for conflict with Eric Foxworthy (Aug. 1980 via the West): Sable, a winged fox rampant, wings addorsed, argent. His first device submission, Sable, a winged wolf rampant and a chief rayonny argent, was returned from the Feb. 2006 ILoI for conflict with both the badge (above) and device of Eric Foxworthy (Nov. 1982 West): Sable, a winged fox rampant within a bordure argent. This submission adds the tertiary heart to clear these conflicts.

19 Corwin Silvertongue - Resub Household Name & Resub Badge
Herald of Record: Wacerhild / Otfrid Ammerthaler
Submitted Name: Whitloup Tavern

(Fieldless) A wolf's head erased ululant sustaining a tankard fesswise argent.

No major changes.

His primary name was forwarded to Laurel on the May 2006 xLoI. His previous household name submission, House Argent Lupe, was returned from the Feb. 2006 ILoI for grammar issues and lack of documentation. His previous household badge submission, Sable, a wolf's head erased ululant argent, was returned on the same letter for conflict with both Fandral Silverfox (Sep. 1973): Sable, a fox's mask argent and William of Hoghton (Aug. 1982 West): Sable, a grey wolf's head erased proper [Canis lupus]. This submission clears those conflicts by addition of the tankard and by being fieldless.

Whitloup is an inn sign name constructed along the pattern of [color] + [animal], such as Whithors 1358, found in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "English Sign Names" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/inn/). Combinations of English and French in descriptive bynames can be found for example in Jönsjö: Blancheye 1327, Blanchman 1379. Loup is French for 'wolf' (Dauzat, Dubois & Mitterand: Nouveau Dictionnaire Etymologique; Librarie Larousse, Paris). [No copies provided for Jönsjö or the dictionary, and no documentation included for 'tavern'.]

20 Cristyne Landebert (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Istvan

Azure, three panthers argent spotted sable, flames Or.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about 15th c. German language and/or culture. She requests authenticity for 15th century German time period and language/culture.

Cristyne is from Talan Gwynek's "15th c. German Women's Names".

Landebert is dated to 1262 in Brechenmacher s.n. Lambert, Lampert.

21 David Erbe von Bärau (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Mari Elspeth nic Bryan / Giovanna di Milano

Per pale fleury counter-fleury vert crussily couped and argent a bear rampant sable.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound 'David Erb von Bahr-au'. The form says it's OK to change Bärau if a different form is found in period.

The worksheet was done either in pencil or a very light pen, and I can't quite make out the photocopies. It appears that the submitter is using the Mundane Name Allowance for the David Erbe part, which is his mundane name. [No proof attached.]

Bärau is a town in Switzerland. Printouts are attached from http://www.traveljournals.net/explore/switzerland/map/m3512935/barau.html.

22 David Erbe von Bärau - New Badge
Herald of Record: Giovanna di Milano

(Fieldless) On a vol sable a crescent argent.

His name is submitted elsewhere on this letter.

23 Dieter Velkener an dem Platz (m) - New Name & New Badge
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Nikolai Domingo

Vert, a red-tailed hawk close to sinister head affronty perched on a branch argent.

He cares most about an unspecified meaning.

Dieter is a header on p. 77 of Bahlow, dated in this spelling to 1486 as a given name.

Velkener is a surname meaning 'falconer' dated to 1399, ibid. p. 113 s.n. Falkner.

an dem Platz is a locative surname dated to 1328, ibid. p. 376 s.n. Platz.

The badge is to be jointly owned by Kirstyn Velkener an dem Platz, whose name is submitted elsewhere on this letter.

24 Draguin atte Maeldun - New Household Name & New Badge
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / canute
Submitted Name: Martiall Company of Athenry

(Fieldless) A wyvern erect sustaining a pole axe Or.

His name was registered in Apr. 1990 via the East. His device, Barry wavy argent and gules, a wyvern erect maintaining an axe within a bordure sable, was registered in Jan. 1991 via the East.

The meaning 'from Athenry, Ireland' is most important.

Martiall Company is a designator dated to 1629 in "Naming the Honourable Artillery Company", found in Duncan's Cavalier Webpages (http://victoria.tc.ca/~godwin//duncanweb/documents/hacname.html).

Athenry is an Irish town name, found as a header and an undated Anglicized spelling in A. Room's A Dictionary of Irish Place-Names, p. 17. It's located in County Galway.

25 Efa verch Cynan - New Device
Herald of Record: Nikolai Domingo

Per pale azure and vert, a greyhound's head erased contourny Or and a chief ermine.

Her name was registered in June 2006, via the East.

26 Eibhlín an Fraoich (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Brunissende / Eldrich Gaiman

Azure, a chevron between two sewing needles and thistle argent.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the spelling. The form says, "Change if needed to be registered, keep the spelling as close as possible."

Eibhlín is found in OCM p. 84, dated to 1274 and after.

Fraoch is found undated s.n. Freaghill in Room A Dictionary of Irish Place-Names, p. 58. The phrase an Fraoich is found in "Onomasticon Goedelicum" (http://www.ucc.ie:8080/cocoon/doi/locus/F); the form says it means 'de Fraoch'.

27 Emma MacMinn (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Caitriona inghean Ui Bhraonain / Palotzi Marti

Per bend sinister indented azure and vert, a harp bend sinisterwise and an arrow bend sinisterwise Or.

No major changes.

She cares most about the sound.

Emma is dated to 1186-1219, 1316, and 1401 in Withycombe s.n. Emma.

MacMinn is one of the header spellings in Black (first header MacMin); dated forms include M'Men 1426 and Mcmyane or Makmyane 1509.

28 Enoch MacBain - Resub Badge
Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

(Fieldless) A barrel palewise proper sustaining an elephant rampant argent.

His name and device (Per pale sable and argent, a wolf and a hare salient addorsed and on a chief three mullets of six points counterchanged) were registered in Oct. 2002, via the East. His previous badge submission, (Fieldless) An elephant statant bearing on its back a tower argent, was returned from the Oct. 2002 ILoI, for conflict with Andrew Castlebuilder (Sep. 79): Per chevron purpure and Or, overall an elephant trumpeting passant proper, on its back a carpet purpure, fimbriated Or, supporting a tower argent, masoned sable, with just one CD for the field(lessness). This submission should be well clear of that device.

29 Finnian Mac Ailein (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Isabel de Roys / Eleazar ha-Levi

Argent, three staffs in pale fesswise sable.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning; the specifics line says "White-Headed (S.N. least important) Scottish." The worksheet has the authenticity request checkbox marked, but the corresponding section of the submission form is blank.

Finnian: OCM p. 102-3 s.n. Finnén states "This gives the early Latin form Vennianus and such Irish forms as Finnio and Finnian." Two saints (a bishop and an abbot) are mentioned by the name of Finnén, undated, and Finnian is given as an (undated) Anglicized form.

Mac Ailein is given as the Gaelic spelling of MacAllen in Black p. 451; the name is dated to 1376 in the spelling M'Alayne.

30 Gormlaith ingen Lugdach (f) - New Name
Herald of Record: Ailis Linne

If her name must be changed, she cares most about 8th century Irish Gaelic language and/or culture. She requests authenticity for 8th century Irish Gaelic language and/or culture and time period.

Gormlaith is dated to c. 815 in OCM. It's also found in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Index of Names in Irish Annals" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/AnnalsIndex/), dated to 810, 840, 946, and 948.

ingen: Old Irish patronymic.

Lugdach is the genitive form of Lugaid, which is a header in OCM. It's dated to 612 and 954 [among others] in Mari's Annals Index (op. cit.), and it's also found in "100 Most Popular Men's Names."

---

31 Hans Krüger (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Isabel de Roys / Nikolai Domingo

Vert, a tau cross throughout and in chief a fox courant and a Maltese cross argent.

No major changes.

He cares most about language and/or culture; the specifics line says "Hans Kruger."

Hans is a header in Bahlow (Gentry) p. 190; the entry says this is a short form of Johannes, the most popular first name in the Middle Ages. Ibid. p. 251 s.n. Johannes says "Numerous short forms show that Johannes was the most frequent Christian (baptismal) name at the end of the Middle Ages (thus "Hans and Grete")." [The form then goes on to say "Hans dated to 1287, SCA German Names book," and the worksheet says "Hans dated to 1287 from SCA documentation." This probably refers to one of the three-ring binders at the Point containing printouts of online articles, but there's no indication of which article is referenced.]

Krüger is a header in Bahlow (op. cit.), p. 287, undated. Brechenmacher p. 119 s.n. Kruger dates Krug. to 1340, and Chrüger to 1362.

32 Hieronymus Ullrich (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

Vairy Or and gules, a boar's head erased sable.

Both elements are header forms in Bahlow (Gentry). [Yep, that's all it says.]

33 Hugh Tauerner (m) - New Name
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning 'Hugh, innkeeper'.

Hugh is a header form dated to 1273 in Withycombe p. 157-8.

Tauerner is dated to 1175 in R&W p. 440 s.n. Taverner.

34 Hugh Tauerner (m) - New Alternate Name
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell
Submitted Name: Abu Yusuf Hasan

His primary name is submitted elsewhere on this letter. If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning 'Hasan, father of Yusuf'.

Abu is Arabic for 'father of', an honorific.

Yusuf is found on p. 129 of Schimmel, dated to Biblical times (Joseph son of Jacob son of Isaac son of Abraham).

Hasan: ibid p. 111, dated 669. [No photocopies provided.]

35 Isabeau de Valle - New Badge
Herald of Record: Palotzi Marti

(Fieldless) On a plate fimbriated gules a hare courant sable.

Her name and device (Argent, a hare courant sable between three roundels gules and on a chief sable three decrescents argent) were registered in Nov. 2003, via the East.

36 Johannes Kranich (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Ulrich Rickler / Drea of Carolingia

Argent, a wolf rampant to sinister gules, and on a chief embattled gules masoned argent three boar's heads erased argent.

No major changes.

He cares most about German language and/or culture.

Johannes: Bahlow s.n. Johannes indicates that this was the most frequent Christian name at the end of the Middle Ages.

Kranich: Brechenmacher s.n. Kranch - Kranich dates a Joh. dictus K. to 1291.

37 Johannes Teufen (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Alison Wodehalle

Gules, a chevron between two lightning bolts palewise and a Catherine's wheel Or.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound.

Johannes is a header in Bahlow p. 251; the entry says this was "the most frequent Christian (baptismal) name at the end of the Middle Ages..."

Teufen is a placename mentioned in Bahlow p. 504 (p. 513 in the German edition) s.n. Teuf(f)ert. It's undated, but the entry mentions a medieval poet named Wernher of Teufen.

38 Jonathan Blaecstan - New Household Name & New Badge
Herald of Record: Ulrich Rickher / Eleazar ha-Levi Submitted Name: Blaecstan Keep

Sable, on a bend sinister vert, fimbriated argent between two gryphons sejant to sinister three pine trees couped Or.

No major changes.

Sound is most important.

Blaecstan is the submitter's registered surname (June 1990 via the East).

Keep is a valid household designator by precedent (Seeker's Keep - Aelfric se Droflic, Sep. 1992 A-Ansteorra).

The badge is to be jointly owned by Melisande of the Gryphon Wood (name reg. Nov. 1991 via the East).

39 Katharine Whytton (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Isibel in Kyrra

Purpure, a bend wavy argent between a brazier Or and a dove argent.

No major changes.

Sound is most important.

Katharine is a header in Withycombe, p. 186, dated to 1148 in England.

Whytton is a variant of several names in R&W: Whitton (p. 489), Witton (p. 498), and Wyton, Whyton (p. 506). Dated forms include Whyttun (13th c.), Whitton (1378), Wyton (1245), and Wytton (1440).

40 Kathryn Elizabeth Lyons Ramsey (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Rowen Cloteworthy

Per chevron sable and gules, two lions rampant combattant and a ram's head cabossed argent.

No major changes.

The form says the element 'Elizabeth' may be dropped if necessary for registration.

Kathryn is a reasonable variant based on Katheryn, dated to 1570 in R&W p. 127 s.n. Daughters, and Katryn, dated to 1569 in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Feminine Given Names in the Registers of the Church of St. Mary's, Dymock", s.n. Kateren (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/dymock/dym_women.html).

Withycombe s.n. Elizabeth says that by 1600, this name accounted for over 20 percent of female baptisms.

Lyons is dated to 1602 in Hitching. R&W s.n. Lyon dates Henry de Lyons to 1296.

Ramsey is dated to 1602 in Hitching. R&W s.n. Ramsey dates Simund de Ramesie to 1175. [No copies provided from Hitching.]

41 Kirstyn Velkener an dem Platz (f) - New Name
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell

She cares most about an unspecified meaning.

Kirstyn is dated to 1381-83 in Talan Gwynek's "Medieval German Given Names from Silesia" s.n. Christine.

Velkener is a surname dated to 1399 in Bahlow p. 113 s.n. Falkner.

an dem Platz is a locative dated to 1328, ibid. p. 376 s.n. Platz.

42 Laurencie La Martre (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Isabel de Roys / Drea & cnut

Azure, a winged monkey passant argent.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sound 'Laurencie (or Laurencia) La Martre'.

Laurencie is found in Dauzat, undated, s.n. Laurent. The masculine name Laurent is dated to 1548 and 1550 in Tangwystyl verch Morgant Glasvryn's "Given Names from Brittany, 1384-1600" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/tangwystyl/latebreton).

La Martre is dated to 1274 in Morlet Noms de Famille, p. 670 s.n. Martre(s).

43 Laurens de Vitrolles - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Istvan

Per saltire azure and Or, three fleurs-de-lys and a unicorn's head couped counterchanged.

No major changes.

She doesn't care what gender this name is. If it must be changed, she cares most about language and/or culture, but the specifics line says Vitrolles - near Marseille.

Laurens is found under Masculine Given Names in Cateline de la Mor's "16th C. Norman Names" (KWHS Proceedings 1994, p. 74).

Vitrolles is found under Verreries in Dauzat & Rostaing. The spelling Vitrola is dated to 1200, 994-1032, and 1274.

44 Lorcan O Donovan (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Brunissende / Nikolai Domingo

Azure, a hand sustaining a sword argent charged of a snake head to chief vert.

This is a different person from the Lorccán Ó Donnubáin whose name was forwarded to Laurel on the East's April 2006 xLoI. I have been unable to reach the submitter regarding this near-identical conflict with his name. That said, here's what's on his forms...

He cares most about sound; the specifics line says Keep Lorcan.

Lorcan is found in OCM p. 124 s.n. Lorccan. The entry says it was a very common name in early Ireland. It's also found in Mari's "Index of Names in Irish Annals" under Lorcánn; this spelling is found in entries dated 863, 864, 882, 913, 925, 943, 1078, and 1162.

O Donovan is found as an undated Anglicized form in Woulfe p. 501 s.n. Ó Donnabháin.

45 Malise Lauird (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Katherine Throckmorton / Drea of Carolingia

Purpure, on a bend between two triquetras argent three forget-me-nots purpure.

Sound, spelling, and language and/or culture are all marked as most important. The specifics say "Malise sounds like ma-lise, wants to keep 'e' in Malise, 13th c. Scots."

Both the submission form and the worksheet clearly have Mailse as the "name submitted", but the name is equally clearly documented as Malise: it's a masculine given name found as a header in Black. The spelling Malis is dated to 1210.
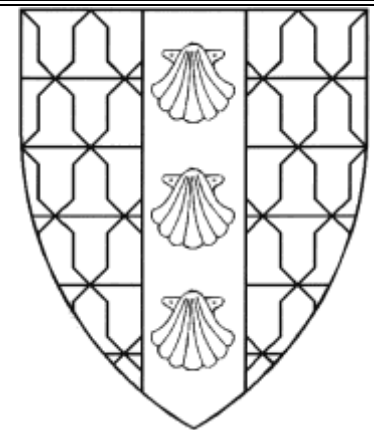

Lauird is a surname dated to 1257, ibid. s.n. Laird.

46 Marguerite de Saint Nazaire - New Device
Herald of Record: Rowen Troubadour

Vair, on a pale sable three escallops argent.

Her name was forwarded to Laurel on the May 2006 xLoI.

47 Marguerite de Saint Nazaire - New Badge
Herald of Record: Rowen Troubadour

(Fieldless) A magpie proper.

Her name was forwarded to Laurel on the May 2006 xLoI. The submitting herald says this should be clear of Urraca Cantábrica (Jan. 1997 via Atlantia), (Fieldless) A magpie close sable marked argent within and conjoined to an annulet argent; Teague ap Cynan (Dec. 1991 via Meridies), (Fieldless) An annulet Or, overall a corbie sable; Grimald Rauening (Feb. 2005 via Atlantia), Argent, on a raven sable a mullet of six points Or; and Isabella de Corbie (May 1999 via the Middle), Or, a corbie close sable, a bordure embattled per pale sable and gules. In each case, he counts one CD for fieldless, and one for removal of a secondary or tertiary charge.

48 Nicodemus Sewere (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Palotzi Marti

Quarterly gules and Or, two torches in saltire sable enflamed counterchanged.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning 'sewer = feast attendant'.

Nicodemus is dated to 1579 in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Given Names in Chesham" (http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/Chesham/).

Sewere is a header dated to 1279 in G. Frannson, Middle English Surnames of Occupation 1100-1350, p. 112. This spelling is also found in R&W p. 402 s.n. Sewer, definition (ii), in the parenthetical (and cryptic) remark "(a13., NED, with forms sewere, sawere, sewre)." Presumably, a13. means 'ante 13--', i.e. 'before 13-something'.

49 Oram y Maer (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Kolosvari Arpadne / cnut

Vert, a stag's head erased affronty argent and on a point pointed ployé Or an oak sprig fructed vert.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning 'Oram of the stone' and Welsh language and/or culture.

He'd actually like Oran as his given name, but we couldn't find any documentation for that, beyond a statement that it's mentioned in passing in the Bible somewhere. Orum is dated to 1175 in R&W p. 331 s.n. Orme as a masculine name; the entry says "Oram and Orum are due to the strongly trilled r." He prefers the -a- but will accept -u- if needed.

y Maer is intended as a Welsh byname meaning 'of the stone', along the pattern of names like 'of the axe', 'of the chair', and 'of the horseshoes', found in Compleat Anachronist 66. The word maer meaning 'stone' was found in Y Geiriadur Mawr (The Complete English-Welsh, Welsh-English Dictionary) by H. Meurig Evans and W.O. Thomas, p. 270. Please fix the grammar as needed. [Either I wrote the page number down wrong, or the dictionary is numbered separately for each language, because the included photocopy is of a page 270, but it's the Gw- section of Welsh to English, not the St- section of English to Welsh.]

50 Oswyn æt Mældun - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Thomas Brownwell / Michael Batcok

Barry wavy argent and gules, a wyvern erect maintaining an axe and on a chief wavy sable three crosses patonce argent.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound 'at' or 'atte' for the locative. No gender is marked for the submitted name.

Oswyn is a constructed Anglo-Saxon name, using the parts Os- (Searle p. 370) and -wyn (ibid. p. 523).

æt: Anglo-Saxon preposition 'at'.

Mældun is dated to 913 in Ekwall p. 297 s.n. Malden.

There is a letter of permission to conflict included from his father, Draguin atte Maeldun, who bears Barry wavy argent and gules, a wyvern erect maintaining an axe within a bordure sable (reg. Jan. 1991 via the East). [As far as I can tell, the permission is unnecessary, as there is no conflict between these devices...]

51 Reina fille Calixte (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Katherine Throckmorton / Eleazar ha-Levi

Per pale purpure and vert, a fret Or and a bordure argent.

Reina is dated to the 13th century in Withycombe s.n. Regina. It's noted as a name of French origin.

fille is an article meaning 'daughter of'. She is willing to drop the fille.

Calixte is a header in Dauzat; it's a surname derived from the masculine name Calix, which in turn derives from the Latin name Calixtas, borne by a 3rd century pope and martyr.

52 Rosalind atte Rylle - Resub Device
Herald of Record: Istvan

Vert, a pomegranate slipped and leaved argent seeded gules a bordure Or.

Her name was registered in Mar. 1999 via the East. Her previous device must've been returned in kingdom at some point, because there's no mention of armory on the LoAR.

53 Rúadhnait inghean Ruaidhrí (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Brunissende / Dougal

Azure, a squirrel sejant erect, on a chief potenty argent, three rowan leaves proper.

No major changes.

She cares most about the sound; the specifics line says "Also OK with spelling Ronnait."

Rúadhnait is found s.n. Rúadnat in OCM, p. 158; it's the female form of Rúadán. In the legends of the saints, St. Rúadnat is sister of St. Rúadán of Lorrha.

inghean: daughter of.

Ruaidhrí: ibid. p. 158 s.n. Ruaidrí says this was a favorite name in medieval Ireland.

54 Sarah bas Mordechai - New Badge
Herald of Record: Gisela vom Kreuzbach

(Fieldless) A furison vert.

Her name and device (Gules, a fleece argent and in chief a spoon fesswise reversed Or) were registered in May 2004 via the East.

55 Tabitha Johnstone of Annandale (f) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Rüdiger Lindun / Drea of Carolingia

Per chevron vert and azure, two winged spurs Or winged and an increscent argent.

Tabitha is a header in Withycombe; the entry says this is the Aramaic equivalent of Dorcas [which is the submitter's mundane given name]. "Both names appear in Acts ix for the charitable woman who was raised up by St. Peter. Tabitha, like Dorcas, was common in the 17th century..."

Johnstone is submitted as a plausible variant spelling, based on Black s.n. Johnston, which dates Johnestoun 1493 and Jonhstone 1499.

Annandale is a header in Johnston's Place Names of Scotland; the entry dates Annanderdale to 1487, but there's no indication of when the modern spelling was adopted.

56 Tiberius Iulius Rufus (m) - New Name & New Device
Herald of Record: Jehan de la Manche / Palotzi Marti

Gyronny of sixteen Or and gules, a roundel Or fimbriated and on a chief sable a lightning bolt Or.

No major changes.

He cares most about Roman AD 165 language and/or culture. He requests authenticity for Roman language/culture and AD 165 time period.

Tiberius is a header in The New College Latin and English Dictionary by John C. Traupman, p. 312; the entry mentions Tiberius Claudius Nevo Caesar, successor of Augustus 42 BC - 37 AD.

Iulius: Withycombe p. 184 s.n. Julius says this was the name of a Roman gens, the most famous member of which was Caius Julius Caesar.

Rufus is used as a cognomen (nickname), because the submitter has red hair. Withycombe p. 260 s.n. Rufus derives this masculine name from Latin rufus 'red-haired'. Also, Cassell's Latin-English Dictionary (Macmillan, 1987) p. 198 has rufus 'red, ruddy'.

57 Tyrvaldr berserkr - New Device
Herald of Record: Giovanna di Milano

Sable, two wolf's heads erased respectant and in chief a mullet of four points elongated to base argent.

His name was registered in Aug. 2002, via the East. [The submitter apparently misremembered the registered form of his name: the forms have "Tyrvaldr the Beserk."]
