

Kolosvari Arpadne Julia
eastern.crown@eastkingdom.org

Thursday, August 30th, 2007

Unto the East Kingdom College of Heralds and all others who do receive this letter, greetings from Kolosvari Arpadne Julia, Eastern Crown Herald!

This ILoI contains submissions received on or before August 7th, 2007, going by either the date of receipt (for Pennsic submissions and for mailed items received by July 30th) or by postmark date (for mailed items which arrived while I was away). There are 59 numbered items, comprising 45 names and 43 armory actions. Commentary, as usual, should be sent to the above address and/or the Letter of Comment email list, and is due by September 30th, 2007.

Unless noted otherwise, submitters will accept all necessary changes, have made no request for authenticity, and have included all necessary photocopies or printouts. Where two heralds are credited, the first is for the name, the second is for the armory.

Enjoy!

Julia Eastern Crown

1 Aidan Sacheverell Hyde - New Badge

Herald of Record: Evan da Collareo

(Fieldless) A heart azure.

His name was registered in March 2005, via the East. His device, Vert, three flames argent each charged with a heart azure, was registered in Dec. 2006, also via the East.

2 Alana bat Meir (f) - New Change Of Holding Name

Herald of Record: Juliana da Luna

Current name: Norma of Settmour Swamp

She cares most about sound. Her previous name submission of Eliana Mazdak was returned on the June 1995 LoAR for inadequate documentation; her device (Or, two fern fronds in pile vert, on a chief triangular azure a plate) was registered in August 1995 (via the East) under the holding name Norma of Settmour Swamp.

Alana is dated to 1381 as a Latinized feminine name in England, according to precedent (Morgana of the Mists, 08/2002 R-Meridies), citing Tangwystyl citing Fenwick, Poll Taxes of 1377, 1379, and 1381, Part 1: Bedfordshire-Leicestershire p. 112. [The worksheet (but not the submission form) says the submitter would prefer Illana, if possible.]

Meir is a Jewish masculine name dated to the 10th-16th c. in Aryanhwy merch Catmael's "Jewish Given Names Found in Les Noms Des Israélites en France" (<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/jewish/levy/meyer.html>).

3 Aleksandr the Traveller - New Badge

Herald of Record: Brian Crawford

(Fieldless) A windmill vert vanes set saltirewise maintaining through the sinister chief blade a cavalry lance fesswise reversed Or.

His name was registered in May 1994, via the East. His device, Per bend azure and vert, an astrolabe within a bordure embattled Or, was registered in June 1995, also via the East.

4 Alexondra Ivasheva - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Richenda du Jardin

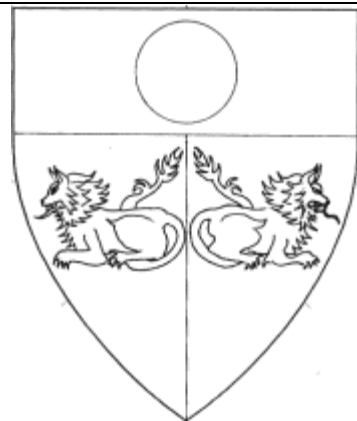

Per pale sable and argent, two lions couchant addorsed counterchanged, on a chief vert a plate.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about sound. She doesn't care what gender the name is.

Alexondra is the submitter's mundane given name, as shown on a copy of her birth certificate.

Ivasheva is dated to the late 16th century in Wickenden s.n. Ioann: Mar'ia Ondreeva zhena Ivasheva.

5 Alheydis von Riga (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Wacerhild / Peter Hawkyns

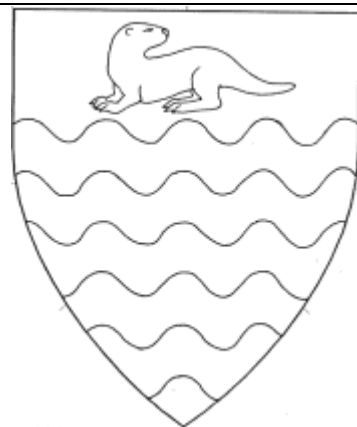

Barry wavy argent and sable, on a chief wavy sable an otter statant regardant argent.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about German language and/or culture.

Alheydis is dated to 1312, 1352/64, etc. in Academy of S. Gabriel report 2174 (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/2174>), citing Zoder: Familiennamen in Ostfalen.

Riga is dated to 1581 on a map found at <http://historic-cities.huji.ac.il/latvia/riga/riga.html>.

6 Angus mac Padraig (m) - New Change of Holding Name & New Device Change

Herald of Record: Aceline Barrett

Current name: Angus of Smoking Rocks

Gules, in pale between two wyverns combattant a spear argent.

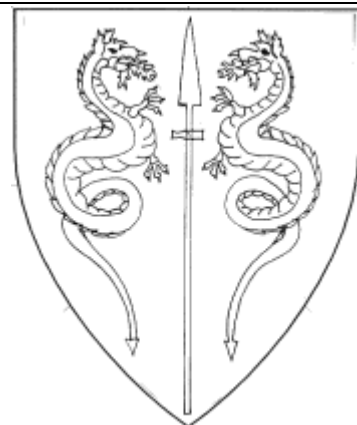

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about an unspecified meaning. His previous name submission, Angus Mockler, was returned on the Aug. 2002 LoAR for conflict with Angus McClure (06/91 An Tir). His device, Gules, on a plate two wingless dragons combattant sable all within a bordure indented argent, was registered under the holding name Angus of Smoking Rocks. The device is to be released if this registration is successful.

Angus: Black p. 23 under Angus dates Angus mac Dunec 1204-1211.

mac Padraig: OCM p. 153 under Patraic, used by settlers in Scotland, variant of Patrick, Patricius.

May be changed to 'mac Phadraig' if lenition is required [which I don't think is the case].

7 Anna de Tatecastre (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Thomas Haworth / Elena MacDonaugh

Or, on a saltire gules a rabbit couchant bendwise argent.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about Jewish language and/or culture in England before 1396.

Anna is found in Eleazar ha-Levi's "Jewish Naming Conventions in Angevin England".

de is given as the element introducing locative bynames in the same article.

Tatecastre is dated to 1086 in Mills p. 338 s.n. Tadcaster.

8 Ariadne Macauslan (f) - New Name & New Device

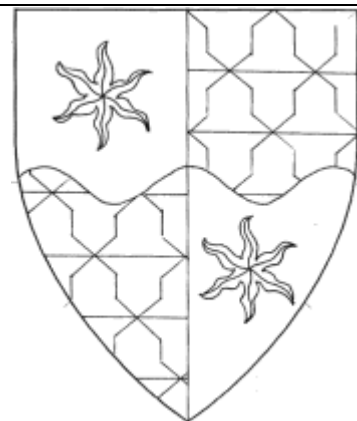

Herald of Record: Daði Þorfinnsson / Elena MacDonaugh

Quarterly per fess wavy purple and vairy purple and argent, two estoiles argent.

She cares most about "a Scots Ariana related to the Buchanan Macauslans". [None of the 'if my name must be changed' boxes are checked on either the form or the worksheet.]

Ariadne is identified as the name of an obscure Phrygian martyr in Withycombe p. 31. While it is not normally used in England until later, 1) it is a saint's name, 2) variants were used in France and Italy (Ariane, Arianna), and 3) there are a dozen Ariadnes registered, the most recent in 2004.

Macauslan is a header on p. 455 of Black. He cites an Alexander Macausland who lived in 1421.

9 Avi de Tatecastre (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Thomas Haworth / Elena MacDonaugh

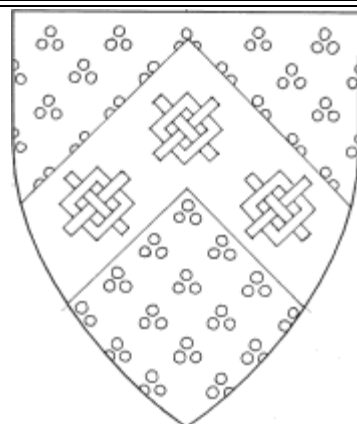

Gules estencely, on a chevron Or three frets azure.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about Jewish language and/or culture in England before 1396.

Avi is found in Daniel Stuhlman: "Hebrew Names and Name Authority in Library Catalogs" (a doctoral dissertation, http://idea.library.drexel.edu/bitstream/1860/465/12/Stuhlman_Daniel.pdf). It is glossed as 'my father', or a possible short form of Avraham, and it is listed as occurring in 2Ki 18:2 (for a woman) and Dan 5:13. If Avi is judged unregistrable, the submitter will accept Abram, which is found in Eleazar ha-Levi's "Jewish Naming Conventions in Angevin England".

Tatecastre is dated to 1086 in Mills p. 338 s.n. Tadcaster.

10 Barbeta Kyrkeland (f) - New Name

Herald of Record: Wacerhild

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about English/Scots language and/or culture.

Barbeta is a feminine name (a pet form of Barbara) dated to 1191 in R&W p. 26 s.n. Barbet.

Kyrkeland is dated to c. 1280 in Black p. 406 s.n. Kirkland.

11 Beatrice Lilli (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Harold von Auerbach

Or, a fleur-de-lys between three bees gules.

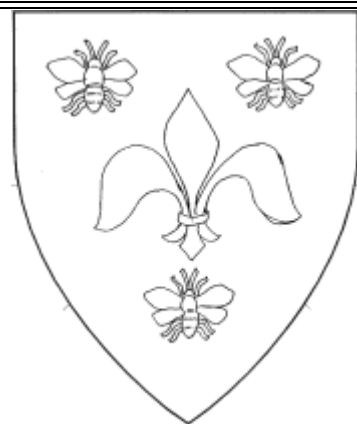

No major changes.

Documentation is based on Academy of S. Gabriel report 3271 (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/3271>).

Beatrice is from Arval Benicoeur: "Feminine Given Names from the Online Catasto of Florence of 1427" (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/arval/catasto>). Also, Beatrice Portinari (1266-1290) inspired Dante to write the Divine Comedy.

Lilli is dated to 1447 in southern Italy, citing Faraglia, N.F.: "1800 Surnames Recorded in 1447"

12 Brigiða inn kollrrammi (f) - New Name & New Device

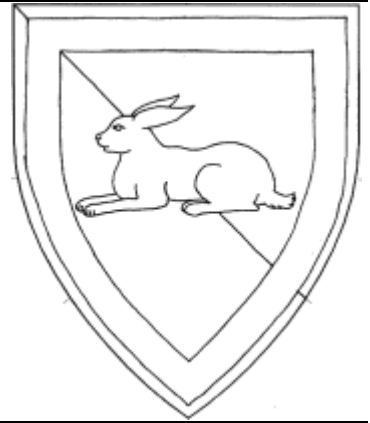

Herald of Record: Illuminada / Istvan

Per bend vert and purple, a coney couchant and an orle argent.

She cares most about the meaning 'hard-headed, stubborn'.

Brigiða is a feminine name found on p. 8 of Geirr Bassi.

inn rammi is found on p. 26 of same, as a byname meaning 'the strong', and kollr is a byname (p. 24) glossed as 'head, pate, skull'. The construction inn kollrrammi is based on the byname inn hamrammi 'strongly built' (p. 22); the submitter and consulting herald request the assistance of the CoA's Norse scholars to improve the formation.

13 Brilliana de la Hay - Resub Device

Herald of Record: Alys Mackyntoich

Vert, a mastiff sejant erect maintaining in its sinister forepaw a sword inverted Or and a bordure embattled erminois.

Her name was forwarded to Laurel on the June 2007 xLoI. Her device, Vert, a mastiff sejant erect maintaining in its sinister forepaw a sword inverted, a bordure embattled Or, was returned on the April LoD for conflict with Lughaidh Mac Sheóinín (Nov. 2002 Ansteorra), Vert, a wolf rampant and a chief raguly Or, with just one CD for the change from a chief to a bordure. This submission changes the tincture of the peripheral charge to clear this conflict.

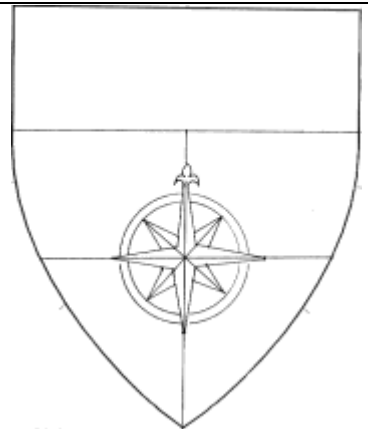

14 Cassandra Grey of Loch Leven - New Device

Herald of Record: Elena MacDonaugh

Quarterly vert and azure, a compass rose and a chief argent.

Her name was registered in Aug. 2002, via the East.

15 Catalina Doro (f) - New Change Of Name & New Change Of Device

Herald of Record: Wacerhild / Meghan

Current name: Catalina d'Orieux

Gules, a bend between six mullets Or.

No changes.

Her current name, Catalina d'Orieux, and device, Vert, on a lozenge Or a cat dormant sable, in dexter chief a mullet Or, were registered in Feb. 1994, via the East. Both are to be released if this registration is successful.

Catalina is grandfathered to the submitter.

Doro is a 'patronymic, from a pet form of Teodoro, Isidoro, Polidoro, etc.', found in "Fourteenth Century Venetian Personal Names" by Arval Benicoeur (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/arval/venice14/>).

16 Chiara di Marzo (f) - New Name

Herald of Record: Elsbeth Anne Roth

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the meaning 'pale, white, clarity' for the first name, and 'of Mars' for the last name.

Chiara is a header in DeFelice Nomi; the entry notes a 'culto di Santa Chiara di Assisi' (and other saints) who died around 1308. It is also found as a feminine name in "Names in 15th Century Florence and her Dominions" by Juliana de Luna (class handout, KWHS 2007).

Marzo is a masculine name from Juliana's cited article, which also says that 'di+name' is used to form literal patronymics.

17 Chyldeluve de Norfolk (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Saikhan Saran / Ailis Linne

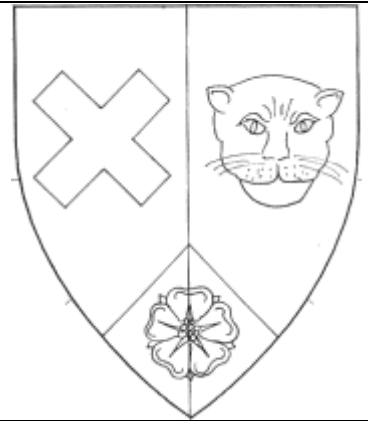

Per pale argent and azure, a saltire couped gules and a leopard's head cabossed argent, and on a point pointed per pale gules and argent a rose per pale argent and azure.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about meaning and language/culture; the specifics line says 'French, Cildlufu' [I think].

Chyldeluve is dated to 1248 in Talan Gwynnek's "Feminine Given Names from A Dictionary of English Surnames" under Childlove (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/reaneyAG.html>).

Norfolk is a header in Ekwall; this spelling is dated to 1043-5.

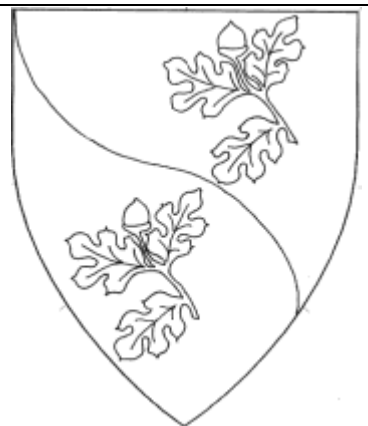

18 Creatura Christi of Oakes - New Device

Herald of Record: Dougal

Per bend embowed counterembowed azure and vert, an oak sprig fructed argent and another Or.

Her name was registered in Dec. 2006, via the East.

19 Deredere Cambroun de Lochabor (f) - New Request For Reconsideration

Herald of Record: Esperanza Razzolini d'Asolo

Current name: Derder Cambroun de Lochabor

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about spelling. Her name was submitted to Laurel as Deredere Cambroun de Lochabor, citing Talan's "A List of Feminine Personal Names Found in Scottish Records". It was registered on the Oct. 2006 LoAR as Derder Cambroun de Lochabor, because further research showed that the form Deredere is not the nominative form of this name. The submitter wishes the spelling of her first name to be changed back to that of her original submission, or as close as possible. If she can't have Deredere as in Talan's article, she will accept Derdere, which is mentioned on the LoAR as a rare but possible form. As a last resort, she will take Dierdre using the Mundane Name Allowance: it is one of her mundane middle names, as attested by the attached copy of her birth certificate.

The consulting herald poses a question: "In the case of Romanized names, where does the actual pronunciation of the original (in this case Gaelic) name fit? Does the Latinized spelling really reflect what was used?"

20 Dorio of the Oaks - Resub Device

Herald of Record: Gisela vom Kreuzbach

Azure, a chevron ploye cotised and in base a pelican in her piety argent.

His name was registered in Oct. 1999, via the East. His initial device submission, Sable, an oak tree eradicated argent charged with a lozenge gules, was returned at the same time for conflict. His first resubmission, Azure, a hurst of five oak trees argent, was returned on the Oct. 2003 LoAR for conflict. His last resub, Argent, a hurst of five oaks azure, was returned on the Oct. 2005 LoD, also for conflict. This is a complete redesign. The submitter was recognized as a Pelican in Jan. 2006 by Darius III.

21 Eiríkr inn kyrrí Gunnarsson (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Ermina Ermini / Elsbeth Anne Roth

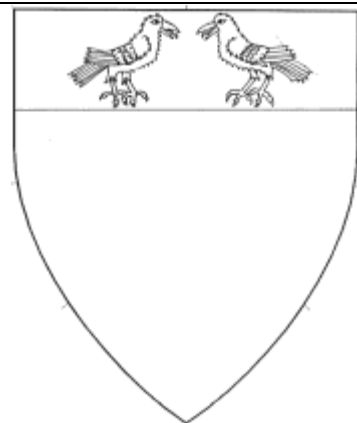

Sable, on a chief Or two ravens respectant gules.

He cares most about meaning, and asks for 'grammar changes only, please'.

All documentation from Geirr Bassi. Eiríkr is a masculine name found on p. 9. Accents on Old Norse names may be dropped as long as they are dropped throughout.

inn kyrrí is a byname meaning 'the quiet', p. 25.

Gunnarr is a masculine name found on p. 10. The patronymic is formed according to the instructions on p. 17.

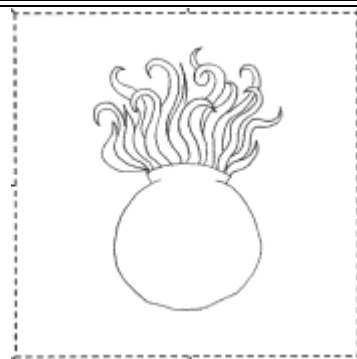

22 Eldrich Gaiman - New Badge

Herald of Record: Eldrich Gaiman

(Fieldless) A grenade proper.

His name was registered in Oct. 2004 via the East. He has a device (Barry wavy ermine and sable, June 2006 East) and a badge ((Fieldless) Three dice one and two conjoined argent spotted sable, Oct. 2004 East) currently registered. (He also had a device, Per pale vert and sable, a dragon segreant maintaining a chess-rook, a double tressure argent, reg. Oct. 2004, changed to a badge Dec. 2004, and released June 2006; and another device, Per pale counter-ermine and vair argent and vert, reg. Dec. 2004 and released June 2006.)

23 Fáelán Ó Sirideáin (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Mari Elspetch nic Bryan / Meghan

Azure, a chevron gules fimbriated Or, overall a wolf rampant argent.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about meaning: 'wolf' for the given name, and 'wild one' for the byname. The submitters allows changing Fáelán to the later form Faolán if needed for registration.

Fáelán is the Middle Irish form of a masculine name, identified under this heading (p. 92) in OCM as the name of three 7th-9th c. kings, as well as 14 saints.

Ó Sirideáin is a header in Woulfe p. 645; the name is dated to at least the 16th c.

24 Gamli tottr (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Juliana da Luna / Eleazar ha-Levi

Sable, a Viking proper crined and bearded Or garbed and maintaining two flanged maces argent.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound of the given name and the meaning of the byname.

Gamli is a masculine name found twice in the Landnamabok, according to Geirr Bassi p. 10.

tottr: ibid., a descriptive byname meaning 'dwarf, small person'.

25 Gaston le Goth (m) - New Change Of Name

Herald of Record: Doði Þorfinnsson

Current name: Damon the Goth

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning 'Gaston the Goth' or 'of the Goths'. He will accept his existing byname 'the Goth' if needed for registration. His current name, Damon the Goth, and device, Argent, a demi-dragon displayed gules, charged on the breast with a tower argent, all within a bordure gules, were registered in Apr. 1989, via the East. His current name is to be released if this registration is successful.

Gaston is a header in Dauzat p. 281, identified as a masculine given name (and patronymic surname).

le Gothe: he wants to translate his current byname into French. The dictionary available at the Point doesn't seem to have any word for 'Goth'; 'Gothe' is the consulting herald's best guess/memory. [The submitted name is 'Goth', no 'e', but the docs section and the worksheet consistently have 'Gothe'.]

26 Genevieve de Bordeaux (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Adhemar de Villarquemada

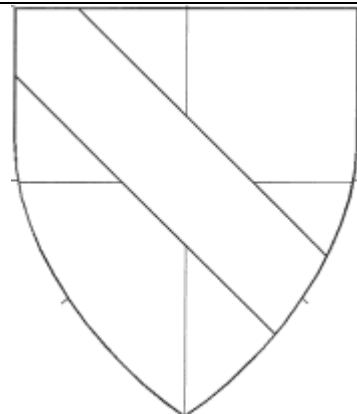

Quarterly azure and sable, a bend argent.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about an unspecified meaning.

Genevieve is found in Colm Dubh's "An Index to the Given Names in the 1292 Census of Paris" (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/paris.html>).

Bordeaux is a header in Dauzat & Rostaing. The entry reads: Bordeaux, ch.-l.dép Gir. (Burdigala, 1^{er} s.; Bordeu, 1280): nom prob. aquit., formé de deux rad. de sens obscur: burd- et gala. Capitale de l'Aquitaine Seconde des Romains, puis de l'Aquitaine féodale (archevêché) enfin de la prov. de Guyenne. [No translation provided.]

27 Giovanna Valori (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Elsbeth Anne Roth / Peter Hawkyns

Per chevron ermine and azure, two mullets azure and a horse salient Or.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about Italian 15th century language and/or culture.

Both name elements are from the Online Catasto (<http://www.stg.brown.edu/projects/catasto/>).

Giovanna is a feminine given name, with 40 occurrences. Valori is a family name which occurs three times in the data.

28 Goerijis Goriszoon (m) - New Name

Herald of Record: Wacerhild

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about Dutch language and/or culture.

Both name elements are from Aryanhwy merch Catmael's "15th Century Dutch Names"

(<http://www.ellipsis.cx/~liana/names/dutch/dutch15.html>). Goerijis is a masculine name, dated in this spelling to 1478-81. Goriszoon is expanded from the abbreviation Gorisz., dated 1478-81, found under Goerijis in the patronymics section. This spelling of the patronymic suffix can be found for example under Aernt: Aerntszoon, 1478-81.

29 Guilherme Bosquet (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Illuminada / Dougal

Argent seme of trees vert, a rermouse displayed sable.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about sound.

Guilhermo is found in "Some Names in Latin from a French Document circa 1442" by Margaret Makafee (<http://www.contrib.andrew.cmu.edu/~grm/latin-france.html>).

Bosquet is found on p. 123 of Morlet under Bosquant, Bosquet.

30 Henna Sinclair (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Wacerhild / Meghan

Gules, three Norse sun crosses one and two within a bordure Or.

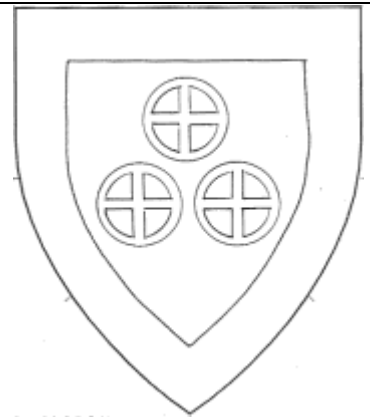

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about the sound of the whole name.

Henna is dated to 1192 as a feminine form of Henn, a pet name for Henry, in R&W s.n. Henn.

Sinclair is a header in Black; dated spellings include Sinclair 1598 and Synclair 1526. The submitted spelling seems a reasonable variant based on these.

If this name conflicts with the historical Henry Sinclair, the submitter would like to add 'of Berwyic', which is found in Black p. 71 s.n. Berwick: William de Berwyic, 1317.

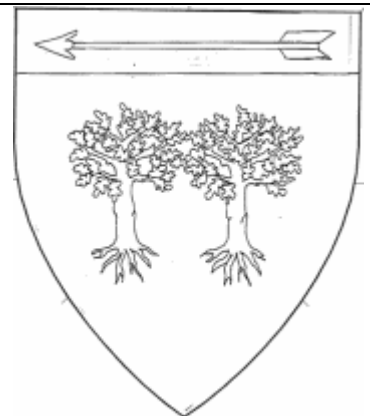

31 Iulianiia Trieskova - Resub Device

Herald of Record: Aceline Barrett

Argent, two oak trees proper, on a chief vert an arrow argent.

Her name was registered in July 2006, via the East. Her previous device submission, Argent, a tree eradicated proper and on a chief vert and arrow argent, was returned on the Dec. 2005 LoD for conflict with Aline von Ronneburg (06/2001 Drachenwald), Argent, a birch tree eradicated, on a chief vert a horse passant contourny argent, with just one CD for the change in type of the tertiary charge. This submission adds another tree to clear this conflict.

32 Kaðall Ragason (m) - New Name & New Device

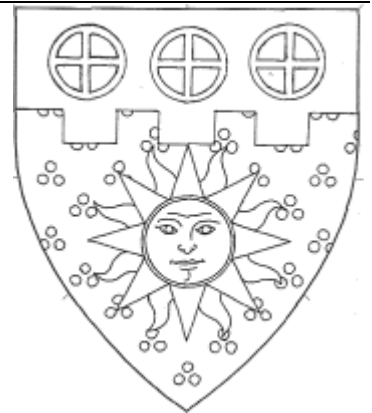

Herald of Record: Kolosvari Arpadne / Elena MacDonaugh

Gules estencely, a sun in splendor and on a chief embattled Or three Norse sun crosses gules.

He cares most about sound.

All documentation from Geirr Bassi. Kaðall: p. 12, a masculine name of Irish origin, found twice in the Landnamabok.

Ragi: p. 14, masculine name found once in the Landnamabok. The instructions on p. 17 say that -i becomes -a in the genitive, hence Ragason for the patronymic.

33 Kathryn Fontayne (f) - New Name

Herald of Record: Juliana de Luna

She will accept changes to the given name, but wants only Fontayne or Fonteyn for the surname. [I think. The last bit -- the second spelling of the surname -- is half cut off by the photocopies. This is what I could make out from the top half of the letters.]

Kathryn is interpolated from Katheryn, dated 1570 in Talan's "Feminine Given Names from A Dictionary of English Surnames" (<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/reaneyHZ>), and Katryn, dated 1569 in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Names and Naming Practices in the Registers of the Church of St. Mary's, Dymock" (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/dymock/>).

Fontayne is found in Bardsley s.n. Fountain: Geoffrey de la Fontayne 1273, William Fonteyn temp. Edw. III.

34 Kathryn Fontayne (f) - New Alternate Name

Herald of Record: Juliana de Luna

Submitted Name: Merewen de Ingham

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about sound; she 'will take any spelling of these names'.

Merewen is a feminine name dated to 1202 in R&W s.n. Marvin.

de Ingham is dated 1162-8, ibid. s.n. Ingham.

35 Kathryn of Oldenburg - New Device

Herald of Record: Elena MacDonaugh

Per fess gules and Or, a sun Or and a peregrine falcon displayed sable.

Her name was registered in June 1986, via the East.

36 Kevin MacGregor of Kelvin (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Daði Þorfinnsson / Meghan

Gules, on a pile Or a mastiff sable, a bordure argent.

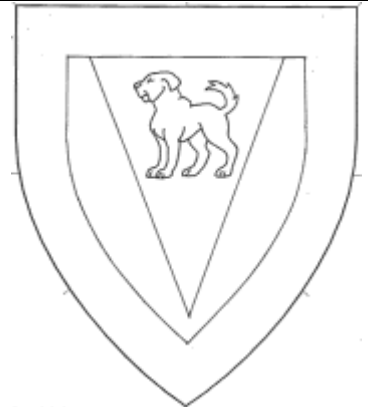

No major changes.

He will accept major changes to the given name, especially a Gaelic spelling. If his name must be changed, he cares most about sound.

Kevin is found in OCM s.n. Cáemgen, Caoimhín p. 41 as an Anglicized form. The submitter will take the Gaelic spelling if needed for registration.

MacGregor is a header in Black, p. 505. Dated spellings include m^c gregoure 1617, M'Gregare 1500, M'Gregur 1600, and McGrigour 1586.

Kelvin is dated to 1200 in Johnston, p. 214 as the name of the river that runs through Glasgow.

37 Kiyohara Soteme (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Solveig / Istvan

Azure semy of mullets of eight points, a chevron cotised between three foxes rampant each maintaining an arrow argent.

She cares most about sound.

Kiyohara is listed as a clan name on p. 393 of Solveig's Name Construction in Medieval Japan.

Soteme is an attested feminine name from the Nara period (784), ibid pp. 282, 384.

38 Leofwyn of Whittlesey (f) - New Name

Herald of Record: Brita Mairi Svendsdottir

No major changes.

Leofwyn is found as the name of a wife and widow in the British Academy - Royal Historical Society: Anglo-Saxon Charters, The Electronic Sawyer: Wills and Bequests (S1527), in a will dated 'probably before AD 1038'

(<http://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/chartwww/eSawyer.99/S%201482-1539.html>). It's also found as the name of a wife, dated 995 x 999, under 'Grants of the laity' (S1218) in a grant of land to Christ Church, Canterbury

(<http://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/chartwww/eSawyer.99/S%201164-1243a.html>).

Whittlesey is a small town outside Petersborough in southeast England. William Whittlesey, Archbishop of Canterbury, was born in Whittlesey in the 1300s, and was archbishop from 1368 until his death in 1374 (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/William_Whittlesey, citing the Encyclopaedia Britannica). If necessary, Whittlesey may be changed to Whittlesea, and 'of' may be changed to reflect the appropriate term used during the 11th or 12th century to denote one's place of origin. [The submission mentions, but fails to include copies from: the PASE website for further cites of Leofwyn(n); British History Online for the location of the town;

<http://www.domesdaybook.co.uk> for mentions of Whittlesea or Witesie in Cambridgeshire and its derivation from Whittle's Ea meaning 'wittle's island'; and <http://www.answers.com/topic/whittlesey> for more of same.]

39 Malculms Korbinian (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Istvan

Per chevron sable and Or, an increscent and a decrescent argent and an eagle sable.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the meaning 'raven'.

Malculms is from Withycombe s.n. Malcolm, dated to 1428. Submitter would prefer Malcolm, but the consulting herald couldn't find that in period.

Korbinian is from Talan Gwynek's "Late Period German Maculine Given Names", dated to 1501-1550 in the table from 16th c. Plauen, used as an unmarked patronymic. German-English is a step from period practice, but registerable (Lillian von Wolfsberg, 11/01 A-Atlantia). If Korbinian won't work, please use Corbin, which is dated to 1086 and 1201 in R&W, and is also the submitter's mundane surname.

40 Naomi bat Avraham (f) - New Name

Herald of Record: Kolosvari Arpadne

She cares most about sound.

Naomi is found in Brandenburg in 1446 and Prague in 1594 according to an email from Juetta Copin, citing Alexander Beider: A Dictionary of Ashkenazic Given Names, p. 551.

bat Avraham is based on Eleazar ha-Levi's "A Jewish Memory Book: Nuremburg, 1349" (KWHs Proceedings, 2004).

41 Nigell Tarragon (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Kolosvari Arpadne / Gwenllian

Per pale gules and Or goutty, a double-headed eagle all counterchanged Or and gules.

He cares most about sound.

Nigell is dated c. 1153-66 in Black s.n. Nigel, p. 629. Also, R&W p. 320 s.n. Neal has Nicholaus Nigelle 1252, and Withycombe p. 228 s.n. Nigel says "Osenev 1460 has Nygell, Nigelle".

Tarragon is the submitter's father's registered surname (Brion Anthony Uriel Tarragon, Sep. 1984 via Atenveldt). A signed letter from Brion attesting that Nigell is his legal son is included.

42 Phebee Fayrhehe (f) - New Name

Herald of Record: Juliana de Luna

She cares most about the sound 'fee-bee fair-eye (or fair-ee)'.

Phebee is dated to 1583 as a feminine name in Mari Elspeth nic Bryan's "Names in Chesham, 1538-1600/1" (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/chesham/>).

Fayrhehe is dated to 1297 s.n. Fairegh in Jönsjö's Studies on Middle English Nicknames, I: Compounds.

43 Rebecca de Tatecastre (f) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Thomas Haworth / Elena MacDonaugh

Azure estencely, on a bend sinister Or four rabbits couchant fesswise purpure.

No major changes.

If her name must be changed, she cares most about Jewish language and/or culture in England before 1396.

Rebecca is found in Eleazar ha-Levi's "Jewish Naming Conventions in Angevin England".

Tatecastre is dated to 1086 in Mills p. 338 s.n. Tadcaster.

50 Séamus mac Neachtain (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Wacerhild / Illuminada

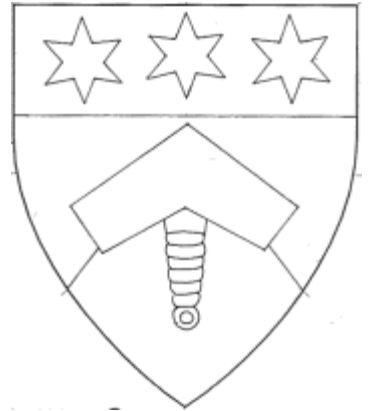

Per chevron sable and gules, a Thor's hammer inverted and on a chief argent three mullets of six points sable.

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about the sound 'Shamus mac Naughton'.

Séamus is given as an Early Modern Irish masculine name in Mari's "Index of Names in Irish Annals" (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/AnnalsIndex/>). There are 14 men found in the annals with this name, dated 1398 - 1608.

mac Neachtain, meaning 'son of Neachtan', is based on the CELT archive, which lists in the Annals of the Four Masters, entry M1548.4: mac Dubhghaill Mic Neachtain (<http://www.ucc.ie/celt/published/G100005E.html>).

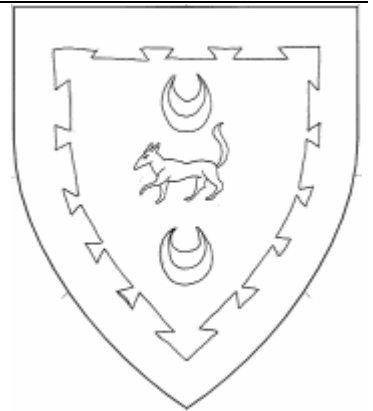

51 Saikhan Saran - Resub Device

Herald of Record: Saikhan Saran

Vert, in pale two crescents Or and a fox passant argent, within a bordure dovetailed Or.

Her name was registered in Feb. 2007, via the East. Her previous resubmission, Vert, on a pale rayonny Or a fox passant between two crescents vert, was returned on the Feb. 2007 LoD for conflict with Maura McCrery (Dec. 2002 Meridies), Vert, on a pale rayonny argent three talbots passant sable. Her first device, Vert, in pale a crescent Or and a fox passant argent within a bordure dovetailed Or, was returned on the Aug. 2006 LoD for conflict with Morgan of Lorraine (Jul. 1990 Caid), Vert, in pale a mullet Or and a sword proper within a bordure dovetailed Or. This submission adds another charge to the primary charge group to clear this conflict. [The return a year ago included an artist's note asking for a bordure "with even width all around, with fewer, larger, equal-sized dovetails." I am not certain that this has been adequately addressed.]

52 Simon Gwyn - New Change Of Device

Herald of Record: Hermina Hermini

Per saltire azure and sable, two winged lynxes guardant combattant argent.

His name and current device, Azure, on a pale between two swords argent three open books azure, were registered in Jan. 2003 via the East. The device is to be released if this registration is successful.

53 Siobhan Reed (f) - New Name & New Device

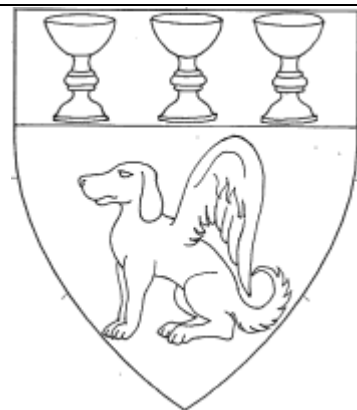

Herald of Record: Jehan de la Marche / Peter Hawkyns

Sable, a winged talbot sejant Or and on a chief argent three goblets sable.

She cares most about the sound 'Shayna'. The worksheet says she wants a name that starts with S and is pronounced like Shay-nah, and will accept any changes to get that. [The submission form has some marginal notes that are partially cut off on the photocopies, which, when combined with the herald's difficult handwriting, renders them illegible.]

Siobhan is from OCM p. 165. [Both the form and worksheet quote something about a 3rd earl of somewhere, I think, but I cannot make out more than that. Have I mentioned the herald's difficult handwriting?]

Reed is a surname dated to 1362 and 1364 in Black p. 688 s.n. Reid.

54 Sterling de la Rosa - Resub Household Name

Herald of Record: Saikhan Saran

Submitted Name: House Hydra

No major changes.

If the name must be changed, he cares most about (an unspecified) meaning, sound, and spelling. He checked the 'no holding name' box, although it doesn't apply: his primary name was registered in Dec. 2004, via the East. This exact household name was returned at the same time for lack of documentation.

This name is intended to follow a 'place of origin' pattern of household name, like House of York, House of Lorraine, House of Valois. Hydra comes from Greek hydro meaning 'water'. It is the name of an island in Greece. [Copies or printouts are included, but not summarized, from <http://www.hydra.com.gr>, <http://www.yannisstavou.gr/hydra-island.htm>, and A Vocabulary of the Attic Language by S.C. Woodhouse (Routledge & Sons, London, 1910; dictionary pages Hot - How and Hus - Hyp).]

55 Stonemarche, Barony of - New Order/award Name

Herald of Record: Illuminada

Submitted Name: Guardians of the Ramparts of Stonemarche

No changes.

Meaning is most important. This is for the baronial fighter/martial award.

Guardians is intended as the designator for a group of people. Stonemarch is the registered name of the group. [No other docs.] The submission form is signed by the baron and seneschal.

56 Stonemarche, Barony of - New Order/award Name

Herald of Record: Illuminada

Submitted Name: Keepers of the Lamp of Apollo

No major changes.

If the name must be changed, they care most about meaning. They're willing to accept a change to 'Order of the Lamp of Apollo' if needed for registration. This is for the baronial A&S award.

Keepers is intended as a designator of a group of people. Per the Aug. 2005 LoAR, orders named for objects of veneration of the form 'non-Christian diety plus associated object' are only one step from period practice. [No other documentation given.] The submission form is signed by the baron and the seneschal.

57 Stonemarche, Barony of - New Order/award Name

Herald of Record: Illuminada

Submitted Name: Order of the Furison of Stonemarche

No changes.

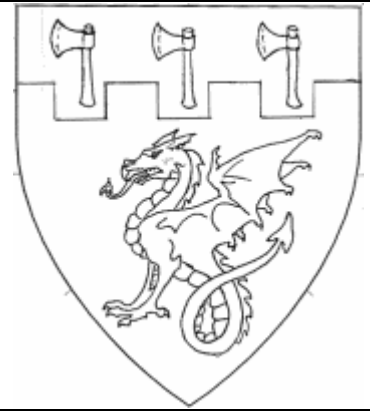

This is for the baronial service award. A letter of permission to conflict is included from James of the Lake, Furison Herald. [No other docs.] The submission form is signed by the baron and the seneschal.

58 Thomas Caulfield (m) - New Name & New Device

Herald of Record: Thomas Haworth / Dougal

Or, a wyvern erect and on a chief embattled azure three axes Or.

Thomas is a header in Withycombe, dated in this spelling to 1086, 1199-1220, and 1273.

Caulfield is found in Room, Dictionary of Irish Place-Names, p. 34 s.n. Castle Caulfield: "The English name is that of Sir Toby Caulfield (or Caulfeild) whose residence here was built in the early 17th century. The house was burnt down in 1641 and remains in ruins."

59 Titus Aurelius Coimagnas (m) - New Name

Herald of Record: Wacerhild

No major changes.

If his name must be changed, he cares most about Latin / early Irish language and/or culture.

Titus is listed by Varro (116-27 BC) as one of the 18 praenomina which remained in use, according to Withycombe p. xviii.

Aurelius is identified as the name of a Roman gens in Withycombe s.n. Aurelian.

Coimagnas is the Ogham form of Old Irish Cáemán, according to Tangwystyl's "Some Masculine Ogham Names" (<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/tangwystyl/ogham/>). Examples of foreign cognomina can be found in "Roman Names" (<http://www.personal.kent.edu/~bkharvey/roman/sources/names.htm>): Aphrodisias, Athenagoras, Cassander/-dra, Demosthenes, Eutyclus/-es from Greek; Bato, Bitus from Germanic sources; Divixtus, of Gallic origin. The first two of these show that words ending in -as seemed to transfer directly to Roman usage.
