Unto the heralds and pursuivants of the East Kingdom College of Heralds does Lyle FitzWilliam, Eastern Crown Herald, and Tanczos Istvan, Mural Herald, send due commendations and greetings!

Herein are the submissions for the second ILoI of 2001 (2001-02). This ILoI contains submissions through the end of April, 2001. There are 47 entries.

A brief note about commentary: When you're writing commentary, please include the submission name as well as the number. This makes our lives easier when we're collating the commentary.

Letters of comment should now be sent to Tanczos Istvan, Mural Herald, who is doing the collation of the commentary with Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova, Eisenstern. We would like to have comments in hand on this letter by Monday, July 23. Comments can be submitted in writing or electronically, and should be sent to one of the following addresses:

1. Abigail of Lorraine (f) — new name & device
Herald of Record: Seastar

Azure, a cradle within an orle of 12 thimbles argent.

Abigail – Withycombe, Oxford Dictionary of English Christian Names, 3rd ed. p-1 'Abigail' – feminine of Hebrew Abigal. "Came into use in England in 16c .. . Beaumont & Fletcher's Play The Scornful Lady (1616)".
– Kathleen M. O'Brien, Feminine Given Names in Chesham, 1538-1600/1 <http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/chesham/chesham-feminine.html> shows 'Abigail', 1587/8 [PCA]

of Lorraine – PH Reaney, The Origin of English Surnames, Barnes & Noble 1967. p 66, 2nd para, "... Lorraine and Poitou occasionally provide topographical surnames, Lorrain(e), Lorain(e) (1333)..." [PCA]
– Reaney and Wilson, A Dictionary of English Surnames, 3rd edition 1997. p 284, 'Lorraine' gives Eustache 'de Lorreyne' in 1333.
ibid, p xvii, "Loss of the Preposition"

Prepositioned locatives are rare in 15c England, and legislatively discouraged in 16c England; but the occurrence of 'de <French place>' is not unheard of ..... (cont)

Abigail of Lorraine

– F. K. Hitching & S. Hitching, References to English Surnames in 1601 and 1602. Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1998, ISBN 0-8603-0181-3. 16G2 vol (p xxxix) has ‘De Brabant’, many other ‘de ____’ [PCA]

2. Aetheric Lindberende — new badge

Herald of Record: AETHERIC Lindeberende

[Fieldless] A tyger rampant gules armed and langued Or.

Badge to be used by The Company of the Red Tyger (no name submission).

Name registered 0993, via the East. Name on the submission form was “AETHERIC Lindeberende”, but name registered is “Aetheric Lindberende” (there’s even a note in the online O&A about this misspelling occurring in 1996).

Aetheric Lindberende

3. Aikateríne Lukanina (f) — new name change

Herald of Record: Avelina DuPont

Name change from Katerina Drachenklaue (1097 East).

Submitter desires a name that is authentic for 8-9th century Byzantine Greek.

Documentation for this name was provided by the Academy of Saint Gabriel, client #1246. [PCA]

Aikateríne – Standard transliteration of Αικατερίνη, the Greek form of Catherine (Withycombe, p 186, s.n. “Katharine” et al.). Name of the virgin martyr of Alexandria, d. 307.

Lukanina – “daughter of Lucan”. ibid. Lucanus was the cognomen of the 1st century Roman poet Marcus Annaeus Lucanus (Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary (1975), p 1396). The Greek form is Lukanós (De Felice, s.n. “Lucano”). “Lukanina” is believed to be the form that would be used by a daughter of Lukanós (Bardas Xiphias, “Personal Names of the Aristocracy in the Roman Empire During...”

<http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/names/byzantine/introduction.html>). [NPCA]

No major or minor changes allowed.

4. Amanda of Stonemarche (f) — new name & device

Herald of Record: Aine Granite

Purpure, a unicorn rampant argent.

Amanda – Submitter’s first name; SCA compatible by precedent (see Amanda Murray 12/98). Stonemarche – submitter’s home barony.

[Note: This is not a unicornate horse – the tail and hooves are correct for a unicorn. It should probably have a beard, though.]

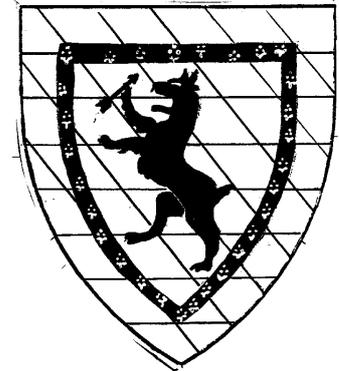

Amanda of Stonemarche

5. Andreas Kalisiensis — new device

Herald of Record: Agravaine Rhiwallon

Barry bendy gules and argent, a cocker spaniel rampant sable maintaining an arrow Or, a tressure pean.

Name registered 0797, via the East.

Andrea Kalisiensis

6. Anne de Guest (f) — new name

Herald of Record: Aine Granite

Anne – common English/French name, e.g. Anne Boleyn Withycombe, pp 25-26, s.n. “Ann, Anne...” Anne of Bohemia, queen of Richard II.

de – “of”

Guest – Hanks & Hodges, p. 229 English nickname for a stranger or newcomer to a community. From M.E. Ghest - guest or visitor. Cognates Ger - Gust, Dutch - de Gast. [NPCA] Reaney & Wilson, p 208, s.n. Guest, Thomas le Gest c 1248 Bec (Mx), 1275 SRWo.

Can anyone provide documentation of French “de Guest” as a byname? The Dutch given above is “the guest”, not “of guest”.

7. Antony Martin de Schefeld — new household name & badge

Herald of Record: Brita Mairi Svensdottir

Submitted name: Company of the Northern Sun or Northern Sun Company

Sable, on a sun Or an arrow bendwise sinister sable, a bordure argent.

Submitter’s primary name was on 2001-01.

The submitted name is intended to be used for a personal archery company. There was no documentation provided.

[The badge was submitted as 4 badges on one form (4 separate blazons, using different tinctures for the bordure), plus payment for only one submission. Since the colored emblazon had a bordure argent, that is the one that I’m including on this ILoI.]

Antony Martin de Schefeld

8. Artus Bayn (m) — resub name

Herald of Record: Marcus Blackaert

Artus – Conway, D. J. “The Celtic Book of Names”, s.n. “Artair”. Variants given as Arth and Artus. No dates given. [PCA]

<http://www.millersv.edu/~english/homepage/duncan/mideng/students/deanl/arthur4.html> – inscription under a carving on the cathedral of Modena, Italy, purportedly dated to early 12th century, reads Artus de Bretania.

[PCA]

Bayn – Reaney & Wilson, p 24, s.n. “Bain, Baine, Baines, Bains, Baynes, Bayns”. William Bayn 1323. David Bane or Bayn 1456-60.

Previous name submission, “Artos of Skara Brae” was returned for lack of documentation.

9. Cadelyn verch Angharad (f) — new badge

Herald of Record: Dana Stewart, Seastar

Vert, an eagle displayed maintaining a longbow and a sheaf of arrows argent, a bordure erminois

[I cannot find a registration with this precise name (which is masculine, for those who are interested). The closest that I find is “Cadolen ferch Angharad the Farwanderer”, registered 0191, via the East. I am in the process of determining if this is the same person.]

Cadelyn verch Angharad

10. Carolingia, Barony of — new other name & badge

Submitted name: Snowberg

Herald of Record: Ignatia, Snowflake

[Fieldless] On a gauntlet fesswise per fess Or and argent, a tyger passant azure.

This is the proposed name and badge for the combined fighting force of Concordia of the Snows and Bergental. No documentation provided for “Snowberg” as a group name.

Branch name registered 0673.

Snowberg

11. Christian la Faire (f) — new name

Azure, a fox passant argent, in chief three mullets Or.

Names is intended as 12th century Portuguese. NDP. Please help.

Jorge Branco de Arrancada

30. Joseph D'Aremand (m) — new device

Herald of Record: Duncan von Halstern

Per bend sinister gules and azure, a crescent Or and a wing sinister Or.

The submitted blazon, Per bend sinister argent and gules, a crescent Or and a wing sinister Or, does not match the emblazon, and would have a contrast problem. In the colored emblazon, the field is divided into red (upper) and blue (lower). Both charges are yellow. We have revised the blazon accordingly for the ILoI.

Name registered 1295, via the East.

Joseph D'Aremand

31. Julien Lapointe (m) — new name & device

Herald of Record: Marcus Blackaert

Gules, three Greek letters Pi, Or.

The submitter wishes a name authentic for 14th century French.

Julien – Elliot, Triste “Names from Fourteenth Century Foix” <http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/cateline/foix.html> – “Julien” is listed as a masculine name. [PCA]

“Lapointe” – given as the submitter’s legal surname (PCA: driver’s license). However, the submitter’s legal surname, according to his signature, is “LaPointe”. Since the legal name allowance requires the name in its exact form, we need to document “Lapointe”. Dauzat, p 490, s.n. “Pointe”.

Julien Lapointe

32. Karl von Aschehrst (m) — new name & device

Herald of Record: Caitlin fitzHenry

Per pale wavy argent and sable, a sea-dog rampant counterchanged.

Karl was a late period German masculine given name, documented in use in the first half of the 16th century by Volkmar Hellfritzsch in Volkl(a)ndische Personennamen (Berlin: Akademie-Verlag, 1969). This source is cited in the online Academy of St. Gabriel Library at the following URL: <http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/talan/germmasc/plauen16.html>, accessed on 3/30/01.

Aschehrst is the registered SCA branch name of the submitter’s local SCA branch, used here as a locative. Branch name registered 0694, via the East.

Sigurðr Vigahamarr

43. Theresa Boncheval (f) — new name change

Herald of Record: Tanczos Istvan, Mural Herald

This is a name change for Theresa Cheval. The submitter’s original submission, “Theresa Boncheval”, was modified by the College of Arms to “Theresa Cheval” because of lack of documentation at that level for “Boncheval”.

Boncheval – “Studies on Middle English Nicknames” by Jan Jönsjö, a doctoral dissertation from the University of Lund which is a survey of nicknames used as second names and attested in ME records from the six northern countines and Lincolnshire AD 1100 – 1400.

Boncheval Y: Rob. Boncheval dated to 1212. Old French /bon/ ‘good’ + /cheval/ ‘horse’.

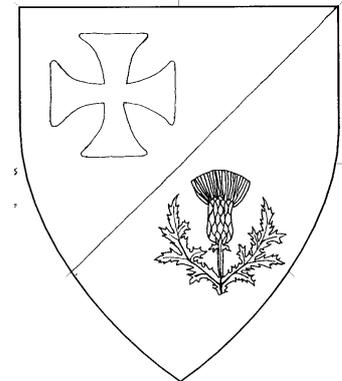

“Theresa” is the submitter’s mundane first name, and can be found, undated in that form, in Withycombe, p. 276, s.n. “Teresa, Theresa.”

- 44. Thomas Loch (m) — new name & device
 Herald of Record: Robin Gallowglass

Per bend sinister argent and vert, a cross formy gules and a thistle argent.

Thomas – Common English given name (Withycombe, p 279). Thomas of Bayeux (died 1100), Thomas Becket (1118-70), both in that citation.

Loch – Common English locative surname (Black, p 433).

Thomas Loch

- 45. Thorolf Egillsen (m) — new badge
 Herald of Record: Dana Stewart, Seastar

Or, an ogress within an annulo of eight billets azure all conjoined

Object has a black center with blue rectangles conjoined (it is not pierced).

His registered device, Or, on an ogress within eight billets conjoined in annulo azure, a troll Or (0595 East), appears to employ the same motif as this badge, but the device blazon is not clear as to whether the ogress is conjoined to the billets. Someone will need to check a hardcopy of that submission.

Name registered 1291, via the East.

Thorolf Egillsen

- 46. Tina of Lorraine (f) — new name
 Herald of Record: Seastar

Tina – Client’s legal name (photocopy of passport attached). Withycombe, Oxford Dictionary of English Christian Names, 3rd ed. ‘Tina’, p 282 (f.) “a pet-form for names such as Christina, Clementina, but sometimes used as an independant name.” ‘Christina’, p “Christina HR 1273, FA 1346.”

of Lorraine – PH Reaney, The Origin of English Surnames, Barnes & Noble 1967. p 66, 2nd para, “... Lorraine and Poitou occasionally provide topographical surnames, Lorrain(e), Lorain(e) (1333)...” [NPCA]

– Reaney and Wilson, A Dictionary of English Surnames, 3rd edition 1997. p 284, ‘Lorraine’ gives Eustache ‘de Lorreyne’ in 1333.

ibid, p xvii, “Loss of the Preposition”

Prepositional locatives are rare in 15c England, and legislatively discouraged in 16c England; but the occurrence of ‘de <French place>’ is not unheard of
