Unto the heralds and pursuivants of the East Kingdom College of Heralds, and to all others who receive this letter, do Lyle FitzWilliam, Eastern Crown Herald Emeritus, and Tanczos Istvan, Eastern Crown Herald, send due commendations and greetings!

Herein are the submissions for the third ILoI of 2001 (2001-03). This ILoI contains submissions through the middle of July, 2001. There are 18 entries. A brief note about commentary: When you're writing commentary, please include the submission name as well as the number. This makes our lives easier when we're collating the commentary.

This is the final ILoI that I, Lyle FitzWilliam, will be sending out as Eastern Crown Herald. Istvan is assuming the office of Eastern Crown, and will be handling the ILoIs from now on. I want to thank all of you for your help in making this job as manageable as it has been, and I especially want to thank you all for your patience.

Letters of comment for this ILoI should be sent to Tanczos Istvan, new Eastern Crown Herald, who is doing the collation of the commentary with Kat'ryna Neblaga Volchkova, Eisenstern Pursuivant. We would like to have comments in hand on this letter by Monday, October 1. Comments can be submitted in writing or electronically, and should be sent to either eastern.crown@eastkingdom.org, or one of the following addresses:

1. Alix de Minerve (f) — new primary name & device

Vert, two natural seahorses respectant Or, in chief a[n e]scallop argent.

“Alix” – Cartier, Jean-Pierre, Histoire de la Croisade Contre les Albigeois, Éditions Bernard Grasset, Paris, date unknown. p. 116, “Tous vantent sa fidélité absolue à sa femme, Alix de Montmorency, dont il aura six enfants.” [PCA] Dauzat gives “Alix” as a variant of “Alice” (p.6, sn. “Alix+, Alizon”).

“de Minerve” – Belperron, Pierre, La Croisade Contre les Albigeois et l'Union du Languedoc a la France (1209-1249), Librairie Plon, Paris, date unknown. p 34, “Lorsqu’il épouse en 1171 Adélaïde, comtesse de Burlats, fille de Raymond V, Roger Trencavel en réfère à son nouvel oncle par alliance, le roi de France Louis VII. Celui-ci comme cadeau de noce lui transfère la suzeraineté sur le château de Minerve...” [PCA]. Strayer, Joseph R., The Albigensian Crusades, Dial Press, NY. 1971. A map of Occitania in the 13th century shows Minerve, about 15 miles NW of Narbonne and 20 miles W of Béziers, both of which are on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. [PCA]

2. Catriona Mairgret nic Dhuibh of Moray (f) — new alternate name
Herald of Record: Dana Stewart, Seastar

Submitted Name: Catriona MacDuff

16c Scots lowlands, Moray firth area.

“Catriona”, Gaelic. <http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/arval/scotgaelfem/> ‘Caitri/ona or Caitrina’ \kaht-REE-nah\ [5] (Gaelic borrowing of Catherine) [NPCA]

“MacDuff”, Scots. ‘MacDuff’ in Black, (2) Mac Dhuibh - Malisius mc Duf 1284, David M’Duif & James Makduf 1594, John Roy M’Duff & Gilbert M’Duff, 1626. <http://www.theplays.org/char.html> (list by play - ‘MacBeth’) MACDUFF

Client recognizes one weirdness in mixing gaelic Caitriona with lowlands MacDuff; she does not wish the English or Scots equivalent (no Catherine/Katherine, please).

Client’s primary name was registered 05/90, via the East.

3. Chardonne de Lyon (f) — new primary name & device

Argent, a dandelion plant with 3 blossoms Or, slipped gules and 5 leaves proper, a bordure vert.

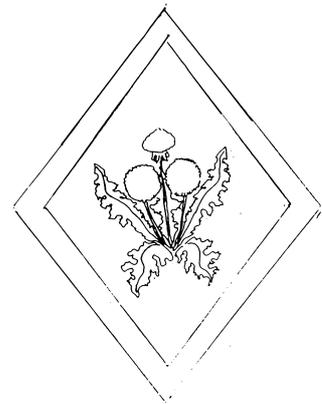

“Chardonne” is proposed as a feminized version of “Chardon”, a name found in the 1292 Paris Census (“Chardon [un] serjant”).

“de Lyon” is intended as a locative meaning “of Lyon”. Submitter would accept alternate form “Lyonaise” if necessary.

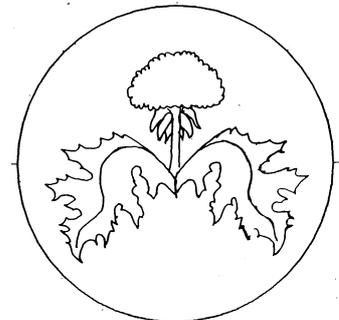

NOTE: The submitter included a citation that the SCA database had 63 names with either “de Lyon” or “De Lyon”. However, previous registration is not documentation; the rules (or the College’s knowledge level) may have changed since that registration.

4. Chardonne de Lyon — new badge

[Fieldless] A dandelion Or, slipped gules and leaved with 2 leaves vert.

5. Eibhlin Macewan of Kynblathmund (f) — resub primary name
Herald of Record: Isabetta Seraphina di Petrillo

“Eibhlin” – Irish Names, Ó Corrain and Maguire, p. 84 (PCA). Note that the form there is “Eibhlín”.

“Macewan” – from “MacEoghaínn”, ‘son of Ewan’. Surnames of Scotland, George F. Black, no date, p. 491 (PCA).

“Kynblathmund” – listed under “MacEoghaínn”, ibid: “Gilpatrik mac Ewen was one of the perambulators of the lands of Kynblathmund, 1219”.

6. Flann Ua Cuill (m) — new primary name & device
Herald of Record: Asa de Tanet

Gules, an owl Or.

“Flann” – OC&M, p. 105 (s.n. “Flann”). Flann Sinna (916), Flann Feórna (741), Flann mac Lonáin (896), Flann Mainistrech (1056), etc.

“Ua Cuill” – given as “From O’Corrain + Maguire’s ‘Irish Names’ as listed by Kathleen M. O’Brien, Patronymic Bynames using ‘ua/na/ó’. dated to 1048’ [NPCA]. Found the [unprovided] website at <http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/mari/ocm/> – “Cenn Fàelad Ua Cuill”, 1048, p. 49, s.n. “Cenn Fáelad”, “Fínnecta ua Cuill”, 960, p. 102, s.n. “Fínnecta”.

The device is in exact conflict with the registered badge of Adelia Tagliaferro (formerly Adelia Gilwell) (10/83, via Ansteorra), Gules, an owl Or. It also conflicts with her badge (09/94, via Ansteorra), [Fieldless] An owl Or.

7. Iago el Matador de Pesco — new device
Herald of Record: Lyle FitzWilliam

Per saltire sable and purpure, a newt fesswise Or.

Name was submitted in ILoI 2001-02.

8. Jonathan Carver of Dover (m) — resub primary name
Herald of Record: Tanczos Istvan

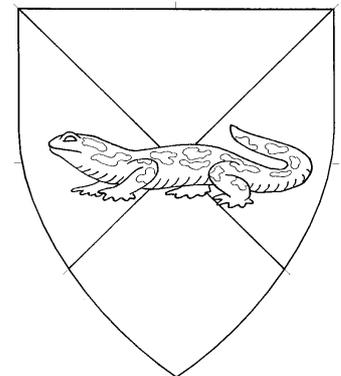

“Jonathan”, from Withycombe, 3rd ed., Jonathan (under that heading), p. 179.

“Carver”, from Bardsley, revised edition, p. 163, under Carver: 1565.

Married – Steven Carver + Jane Byllam

“of Dover”, standard English locative for someone from Dover, England.

Previous submission, “Jonathan Carver”, was returned for exact conflict with the historic Jonathan Carver.

Iago el Matador de Pesco

9. Laoghaire of the Valley (f) — new primary name & device
Herald of Record: Asa de Tanet

Purpure, two oak leaves argent, charged with two oak leaves vert.

“Laoghaire” – variant on “Láegaire. OC&M, p 120, (s.n. Láegaire: Laoghaire, Laoire), m, meaning, probably, ‘calf-herd’. Láegaire is one of the more common early personal names. Submitter wishes a feminine name, but Laoghaire is listed as a masculine name.

“of the Valley” – simple English locative.

Because one identical charge placed atop another is another way of describing fimbriation, this device appears to be in violation of the RfS, VIII.3, “Armorial Identifiability”: “Voiding and fimbriation may only be used with simple geometric charges placed in the center of the design.” I do not believe that oak leaves qualify. Opinions and suggestions on how to correct this submission are welcome.

Laoghaire of the Valley

10. Leod Dubh (m) — new primary name & device

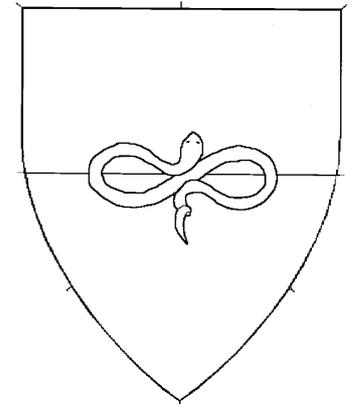

Herald of Record: Conogan mab Rioc

Per fess sable and vert, a serpent torqued, head erect, Or.

“Leod” from Old Norse “Ljot”, meaning ugly. The Clan MacLeod uses this name, as does Castle Leod [NDP]. I cannot find other documentation supporting this given name.

“Dubh”, from the Scots Gaelic for “black”, which was a family name for orphans [NDP].

NOTE: Submitter cites registration of “Colm Dubh” as reference that “Dubh” is an acceptable SCA surname. However, previous registration is not documentation; the rules (or the College’s knowledge level) may have changed since that registration.

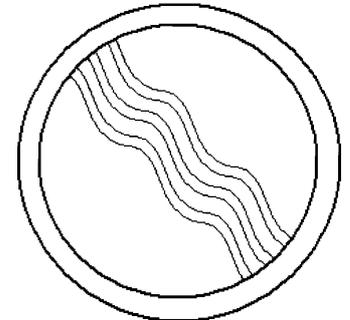

Leod Dubh

11. Lyndhaven, Shire of — new badge

Herald of Record: Conogan mab Rioc

[Fieldless] Three bendlets wavy azure within a bordure sable.

This badge is doubly in violation of Part VIII, “Compatible Armorial Style”, Section 5, “Fieldless Style”, of the Rules for Submission, which states “Since there is no field in [fieldless armory], it may not use charges that rely on the edges of the field to define their shape, such as bordures and orles, nor to cut off their ends, such as ordinaries or charges throughout.” Please suggest alternatives that we can recommend to the shire.

“Miguel” is given as a common Spanish given name.

<http://www.s-gabriel.org/names/juliana/isabella/MensGivenAlpha.html>

14. Minna of Tintagel — resub device

Herald of Record: Harold von Auerbach, Pantheon

Or, a pike fish embowed hauriant Barry sable and argent within a bordure sable.

Minna's previous submission, Or, a pike fish embowed hauriant Barry sable and argent, was returned by the College of Arms for conflict with the Dauphin of France (important real-world heraldry), Or, a dolphin hauriant azure finned gules. "Because Minna's fish is drawn with a curved neck and a back ridge, it looks more like a heraldic dolphin than period depictions of heraldic fish. Therefore there is not a CD for changing the type of charge, leaving only a single CD for changing the tincture of the primary charge group." This submission adds a second CD with the addition of the bordure, and clears that conflict.

Minna of Tintagel

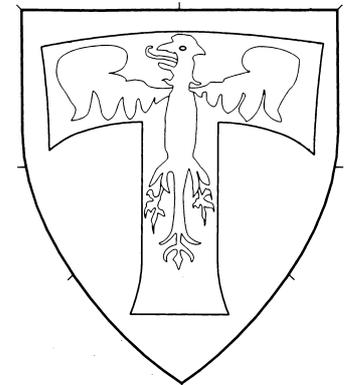

15. Peter Bog (m) — new primary name and device
